WEST HYDE P.T.A. PLANS PROGRAM FOR FEBRUARY 22

Meeting This Week Also Had Interesting Program By The Eighth Grade

SWAN QUARTER.—The West Hyde P.T.A. met Monday night. Mrs. Hubert Watson presided and Mrs. Bill Miller was acting secretary.

The main item of business was a discussion of "Everybody's Birthday Party" to be held February 22, 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Admission 25 cents for everyone. "Everybody's Birthday Party" is an annual money raising project, and many P.T.A. members as well as school children have active parts. The P.T.A. ladies decorate the tables and make the 12 birthday cakes, the school children, directed by the teachers, put on the program.

The eighth grade won the one dollar for room representation in the grades; the twelfth grade in high school.

The eighth grade of West Hyde school under the direction of Mrs. Jeannette Baucom, presented the program which included an original play.

The opening of the program consisted of the Hymn, "Look for the Beautiful;" the Ninety Third Psalm and prayer by Leander McKinney; song, "The Old North State;" choral reading, "The Old North State;" song, "Carolina in the Morning."

A piano solo, "Wedding of the painted Doll" by Richard O'Neal, and a play, "The Legend of Tom Dooley" which is an original play written by Georgia Carol Mitchell, Linda Harris, Rita Simmons, and Sue Gaylord.

In the presentation, Georgia Carol Mitchell was narrator; Donald Cahoon was Tom Dooley; Paul Mason, the country boy; Henry Berry, Tom's other friend; Hyman Spencer, Sheriff; Charles Reid, doctor; Jackie Jarvis, bartender; Carlyle Watson, doctor's grandson; Ralph Brinn, Groysen; June Midyette, Lora.

The chorus which assisted the narrator with telling the story was Rita Simmons, Betty Bonner, Sue Gaylord, Clifford Swindell, Linda Harris, Janice Baynor, William Oscar Brickhouse, Charlie Mac Cahoon and Richard O'Neal.

CHILD GUIDANCE TOPIC OF GUEST SPEAKER BELHAVEN

The P.T.A. of the John A. Wilkinson high school met on Wednesday, January 20, in the auditorium with Russell Johnston presiding. Mrs. Walter Latham of East Carolina College and Bethel was introduced by Vann Latham, program chairman. Mrs. Latham spoke on "Child Guidance". Now a practice teacher supervisor at East Carolina, Mrs. Latham pointed out many ways in which parent and teacher can work together for the benefit of the child. Mrs. Latham is also teacher of social studies at Bethel High school. She is past president and present secretary of the N.C. District social studies council and a member of the N.C. representation to the personal and family living conference of the Mid Atlantic and South Atlantic states in Washington, D. C. She was accompanied to Belhaven by Mr. Latham who was introduced to the group. Charles Latham, Belhaven Boy Scout leader, announced there would be a Court of Awards at the Belhaven Community center and invited all boys over 11 years to join the movement. Mr. Purvis, principal, urged support of basketball games. Mrs. John Boger and Mrs. E. W. Midgette rooms won the attendance count. Refreshments were served by the home economics department.

BELHAVEN MOTHERS MARCH

Mrs. Vann Latham has announced plans for the polo drive in Belhaven. The business district will be canvassed by E. L. Volliva, Charles Latham, John Cutrell and Ed Harris.

The Belhaven band will parade at 6:30 prior to the mothers house to house march, which will be supervised by the Belhaven fire department. Please leave your outside light on if you wish to donate to this worthy cause.
