SOCIAL SECURITY PLAN IS NOW 25 YEARS OLD

This year of 1960 marks the Silver Anniversary of social security which on August 14, will be 25 years old.

In this relatively short span, established in our American way social security has become firmly of life. Nine out of ten workers and their families can look to the social security program for basic protection against loss of income caused by old-age, death, or disability.

Residents of Dare and Currituck counties should call at the Norfolk social security office. Persons living in Tyrrell, Beaufort, and Hyde counties should contact the New Bern, district office.
