

MRS. LOUISE PEELE

Mrs. Louise Day Peele, 61, died at 10:45 p.m., July 15, at the Albe-marle Hospital after an illness of three weeks.

She was a native of Hatteras but had been living in Wanchese for the past three years. She was the daughter of the late James and Sallie Bailey Austin, and wife of William Woodard Peele.

Besides her husband she is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Lavenia Willis and Mrs. Myrna Abbott of Wanchese, Mrs. Matilda Gibbs of Norfolk, Mrs. Ella McPherson of Camden, Mrs. Lila Willis of Texas; one step-daughter, Mrs. Eilleen Etheridge of Wanchese; two step-sons, Lauris Peele of Wanchese and William E. Peele of Norfolk; one brother, James Austin of Hatteras and 21 grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m., in the Assembly of God church at Wanchese by Rev. Carroll Daniels, pastor, assisted by Rev. Charles Etheridge, pastor of the Assembly of God church of Manteo. Burial was in the Cudworth Cemetery.

"Some Golden Day Break" was sung by the church choir. A solo, "God Is Always There," was sung by Mrs. Elmo Daniels, Mrs. Rosco Gallop accompanied at the piano.

The casket was covered with a pall made of pink glads, white glads, white carnations and fern.

Pallbearers were Willie Daniels, Paul Daniels, Bart Garrison, Corbet Payne, Earl Tillet and Malcolm Daniels.

Burial followed in the Cudworth Cemetery at Wanchese.

MISS SPENCER BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. SMITH

Sunday afternoon, July 17, 1960, at the Engelhard Baptist Church Miss Mary Lee Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Spencer, Sr., became the bride of A/IC James P. Smith (USAF) of Cherry Point, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith of Port Arthur, Texas.

The Rev. Joseph Lang, pastor of the bride, officiated using the impressive double ring ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. R. G. Baum of Swan Quarter. Miss Sandra Gibbs of Engelhard was soloist. She sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The ceremony took place before banked palms and ferns accented by baskets of white gladioli and pompons and lighted white tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, R. S. Spencer, Jr., wore a waltz-length alencon type lace gown with a scoop neckline outlined with seed pearls. Her Juliet veil was attached to a crown of iridescent sequins and edged with pearls. She carried a white Bible which was topped with a white orchid centered bouquet.

Miss Mary Long Dudley, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of baby blue organza over taffeta, a matching headpiece with a circular veil. She was the bride's only attendant. For her bouquet she carried white carnations accented with blue.

The bridegroom had as his best man, A/IC Kenneth Cook of Rocky Mount.

Ushers were Walter G. Baum, cousin of the bride, of Engelhard and A/2C Robert Cederdahl of San Diego, California.

The bride is a graduate of East Hyde High School, class of 1960.

The bridegroom is serving in the U. S. Air Force and has been stationed at Cherry Point for the past three years.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a sheath dress of blue lace over taffeta, using white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the couple received at the entrance of the church.

For traveling the bride wore a blue dacron batiste dress with a bolero, with the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet and white accessories.

After the wedding trip through some of the Southern states, they visited Mr. Smith's brother at Port Arthur, Texas. They will be at home in Engelhard and Cherry Point.

Mrs. W. H. Cox was mistress of ceremonies and Mrs. Juanita Miller was in charge of the decorating.

Immediately following the wedding the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home.

Mrs. T. J. Etheridge greeted the guests. Miss Nancy Baum presided over the guest register. Mrs. W. C. Cox, Sr., invited guests to the dining room where Mrs. W. H. Cox, assisted by Miss Myla Baum, served punch. Cake was served by Mrs. E. C. Miller, Jr., and Miss Ann Dudley after the couple cut the first slices from a three tiered all white wedding cake with the traditional miniature bride and groom on top. Guests served themselves nuts and green and white mints. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and other white summer flowers flanked by lighted white tapers. Wedding bells hung over the table.

Miss Mary Ann Marshall and Miss Judy Cahoon were at the bride's gift table.

WISE'S RED AND WHITE ENJOYS GOOD OPENING

Fair weather, prizes and money-saving specials brought several hundred people to attend last week end's grand opening of Wise's Red and White Market in Manteo. Proprietors Willis and Jeanette Wise stated their pleasure in serving so many of the homefolk and visitors during the event, and extended a welcome for all to enjoy the specials to be featured each week end.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. Herbert Creef, Sr., Manteo, the gallon jar of dollar bills, which she donated to Mt. Olivet Church; O. T. Gard, Manns Harbor, wrist watch; Mrs. Madgine Ashby, Manteo radio; Senie Williams, lantern; Mrs. R. J. Westmoreland, Wilson, Mrs. Sandra Ward, chopping block; men's set. In addition, 100 bags of groceries were given during the three-day event.

Specials will be featured over TV station WITN, Washington, from 8 until 8:30 p.m. Friday night for the Red and White chain.

ROAD HEARING IN CRAVEN FOR EASTERN N. C. PEOPLE

RALEIGH.—Citizens of Eastern North Carolina will have an opportunity to present road requests and petitions to the full State Highway Commission at its August 4 meeting in New Bern to begin in the Superior Court room of the Craven County Courthouse at 9:30 a.m.

Persons desiring to appear before the Commission are asked to write Public Relations Officer Sam Beard for an appointment.

Setting appointment times expedites the public hearing and avoids long waiting periods for those persons desiring to present requests to the roads body.

The regular business meeting of the Commission will be held that afternoon, at which time low bids from the July 26 letting will be reviewed.

CONTEST WINNER

Among winners of prize awards in the "popicle" Alamo heroes contest is Russell Leo Chadwick, 740 Old County Road, Belhaven, a customer of Maola Ice Cream Company. The contest required the entrant to find and color the "Alamo Heroes" hidden in a picture puzzle. Young Russell's prize is a seven piece cowboy kit consisting of Evans Bicycle, Play Tent, Saddle Gun, Rodeo Guitar, Cowboy Outfit, Fast Draw Pistols and a "Golden West" train set.
