BRICKHOUSE-BRICKHOUSE WEDDING SOLEMNIZED SUNDAY IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA.—The wedding of Miss Rena Mae Spencer, of Columbia and Norfolk.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta wedding gown fashioned with sabrina neckline and long sleeves ending in points at the hands. The skirt of taffeta and Alencon lace led to a panier train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was arranged from a pearl crown. She carried a white Bible topped with hybrid orchid showered with Lily-of-the-valley and stephanotis.

Miss Doris Brickhouse of Norfolk was her cousin's Maid of Honor. She was dressed in a petal pink floor length taffeta gown with oval neckline and a panier back. A matching velvet bow sprinkled with seed pearls attached to a minute veil was worn on her head. She wore short white gloves and carried an 'Old Fashioned' bouquet of turquoise tinted mums, bouqet and net.

The bridesmaids, sisters of the groom, Mrs. Creston M. Simmons of Virginia Beach, Va., and Mrs. Thomas K. Yerby, Jr., wore turquoise taffeta gowns and headdress similar to that of the maid of honor, and carried similar bouquets of petal pink. Junior bridesmaids, nieces of the groom, Misses Karen Yerby and Cynthia Lee Simmons, wore ice blue princess floor length dresses with rounding neck. Adorning the front at the neck was a matching bow with streamers trailing to the hem. They carried similar smaller bouquets of petal pink mums and net.

Honorary bridesmaids; Misses Shirley Bumgardner, Lynda Knight, Gail Cohoon, Jane Selby and Phyllis Fisher, in formal gowns each carried a long stemmed American Beauty rose.

For her daughter's wedding, the mother of the bride chose a mauve lace street length dress with matching color hat and accessories. The groom's mother wore a Dior blue crepe street length dress with black hat and accessories. Each wore a corsage of Cymbidium orchids.

Acting as best man was Victor Alexander of Creswell, and ushers: Creston M. Simmons of Virginia Beach, Va., Joe Stone of Edenton, Thomas K. Yerby, Jr., Chris R. Yerby, W. D. Vanhorn and Glenn Cohoon, formally dressed. Mrs. Gladys Sawyer was in charge of the wedding detail.

Following the ceremony a reception given by the bride's parents in the educational building of the church was held. Greeting the guests and introducing them to the receiving line composed of the Bridal couple, their parents and the attendants, was Mrs. Joseph Green Brickhouse, Mrs. D. Webb
