TYRRELL REGISTRATION, CHALLENGE DATES SET

COLUMBIA.—H. L. Reynolds, Chairman of Tyrrell County Board of Elections, today announced that registration books will open Saturday, Oct. 15th for the general election to be held Nov. 8.

There will be no change in the registrars and places for registration in any of the precincts with the exception of Supperpong Precinct. Due to the resignation of Lonnie E. Liverman, he will be replaced by John Cox. The place will be in the new warehouse part of the store being renewed by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert J. Brickhouse (or in the addition to the building formerly held for polling place).

The books will be opened for two Saturdays following opening day, Oct. 22 and 27—Sat. Nov. 5 will be challenge day.

On general election day, Nov. 8, the polls are scheduled to open at 6:30 a.m. and hold until 6:30 p.m.

Chairman Reynolds announced that those who desire absentee ballots, can now secure them from him.

SPENCER REUNION BRINGS LOTS OF KIN

COLUMBIA.—The Spencer reunion was held at the Norman Smith Memorial Legion Beach recently with approximately 200 people attending.

A short business period was held at which time it was voted to offer a prize to the oldest and one to the youngest member of the large family present next year. Presiding was Lloyd Weatherly of Norfolk; Mrs. John Newton registered the guests, and Mrs. D. V. Spencer, secretary and Mrs. A. K. Spencer Sr., treas., acted in their capacity.

Many tables were loaded with fried chicken, cakes, pies, chicken salad, potato salad, sliced ham, biscuits, stuffed eggs, pickles, olives and everything which goes with a picnic. Grace was invoked by the Rev. Herbert J. Bryan.

They will meet next year in September.

TYRRELL LEGION POST HAS "OLD-TIME" PARTY

COLUMBIA.—Supperpong Post No. 182 of the American Legion was entertained with an "Old Time" party by the Auxiliary at the Woman's Club Building Thursday night. Old favorite songs were sung, and a "tap dance" number was given by Miss Margaret Rose Chesson and Miss Carol McClees. Accompanying was Mrs. Franklin Alexander. Bingo was played with each person winning a prize. Fruit punch, cookies, candies and nuts were served. Door prize was won by Mrs. Percy Sykes.

Prior to the party, a short business session was called by Mrs. G. L. Liverman, President. Among the committee reports, the outstanding was by Gold Star Mother, Mrs. Shafter Voliva, Social Service chairman: That she had given a party to the youth of the Creeks Community at the Malachi's Chapel Church, at which time the Rev. W. T. Reynolds talked to the group.

All persons eligible for membership are to be contacted and notify Mrs. Percy Sykes, membership chairman. The Auxiliary chaplain, Mrs. W. A. Williams gave devotion and closed the meeting. Pledge and National Anthem were read by Mrs. J. G. Brickhouse. Hostesses were Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. John Alexander, Mrs. T. W. Armstrong, and Miss Rose Bateman.

WESLEY W.S.C.S. MEETS WITH MRS. R. L. MITCHELL

COLUMBIA.—The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church in meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. R. L. Mitchell, heard the program "Living Echoes" presented by Mrs. Mitchell. "The Law Of Love" broken down in two commandments, the relation of man and God, and the relation of man and man. It was brought out that these were the greatest commandments, as their being obeyed would reduce all others to a natural law.

Opening with meditation, the Lords Prayer and Hymns "Lord Speak To Me", "Christ For The World We Sing" and "Savior Like A Shepherd" were incorporated in the program. The announcement of Miss Louise Nichols soon to be in the district, was followed by plans to attend her speaking engagements. A jurisdictional study course to be taught by Mrs. G. Lindsey Liverman at Cedar Grove Methodist Church will begin Oct. 31 with successive sessions on Nov. 3rd, 7th and 10th. The topic of the course will be "Into All The World Together."

"Week of Prayer and Self Denial" materials were distributed by Mrs. Odell Roughton. A quiet day was planned for Sunday evening, Oct. 23 at the Wesley Memorial Church, Mrs. W. V. Reynolds was requested to order the new 'Guide' for all the officers.

Mrs. Wood, here during the construction of the Alligator River Bridge was welcomed as a visitor by the Pres., Mrs. D. M. Bridgeman. The Sec., Mrs. Louise Hales and Treas., Mrs. Reba Wood acted in their respective capacities.

Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Roughton co-hostesses served refreshments to others attending: Mrs. H. Worth Pearce, Mrs. E. J. Brickhouse, Mrs. Reba Wood, Mrs. Wallace Kidd, Mrs. Marshall Swain, Mrs. Lonnie E. Liverman, Mrs. F. L. Johnson, Mrs. W. V. Reynolds, Mrs. J. C. McClees, Mrs. J. Abner Harrell, Mrs. Frances Cohoon, Mrs. D. M. Bridgeman, Mrs. Louise Hales and Mrs. Wood.
