

OCRACOKE PERSONALS

OCRACOKE, Jan. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Reid Cobe are back at Ocracoke for a month or more living in the Eley apartment. Mr. Cobe is maintenance supervisor for the Cape Hatteras National Seashore and is in charge of the dune restoration work here.

Friends here have received greeting cards from Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Howard who are spending the winter in Tucson, Arizona, with their daughter, Mrs. Tom Nelson. They will also visit relatives in Long Beach, California.

Charlie Garrish, Jr. and Doward Brugh made a trip to Washington, N. C. and Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Esham and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Gaskill visited in Washington, N. C.

Mrs. Neva O'Neal, Ikey O'Neal and Billy Garrish returned Sunday from Wilmington, Delaware. Ikey and Billy also went to Portland, Maine to drive Mrs. Lucy Gaskins and children had visited here during Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Walsh of Ocean City, Maryland, were here for the week end.

Mrs. Theodore Rondthaler made a trip to Washington, N. C. and spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peece in Elizabeth City.

Mrs. Charles Mason was in Norfolk to attend the funeral of A. E. Hodges, who was the stepfather of Mrs. Irene Hurst. Accompanying her to Norfolk were Mrs. Herman Spencer and Mrs. Tillett who visited Mrs. William Midgett.

Miss Mildred Bryant returned Sunday from Washington, N. C. She spent the Christmas holidays there and was joined by her sister, Annie Laura, from Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Howard will leave Thursday for a visit in Smithfield at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Bob Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cochran returned from Davidson and Charlotte where they visited.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ocracoke Civic Club was held Monday, January 9, at the school.

At the January meeting of Circle 1 of the Methodist Women's Society it was voted to have the long-past-due supper meeting at which Circle 1 and 2 will meet together. This will be held Tuesday, January 17 in the school library.

Mrs. Neva O'Neal and Mrs. Selma Spencer, leaders of the circles, are making plans. The hostesses are Mrs. Bertha O'Neal, Mrs. Katie O'Neal, Mrs. Neva O'Neal, Mrs. Ronald O'Neal, Mrs. John Thomas O'Neal and Mrs. Theodore Rondthaler.

The Island Inn is reopening Saturday, January 14, with rooms available and the restaurant open to the public. There have been no restaurants open since early in December, to the great inconvenience of visitors to Ocracoke.

PUNGOAN BOOK CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF THE YEAR

The Pungoan Book Club of Belhaven met at the home of Mrs. J. Harold Lupton on Riverview Street Thursday evening.

For the short subject of the evening Mrs. John Boger reviewed the present situation in Laos, a most interesting topic. Miss Loyce Brinson had the long paper and she told most interestingly of her work as a civil service secretary with the United States Corps of Engineers. During the 19 years tenure of service, Miss Brinson became secretary to the Chief of Engineers and was associated with many well known personalities. She discussed the scope of the work of the Corps, which varies from dredging such small streams as Cutler's Creek to clearing the Suez Canal.

Miss Brinson is now retired and lives at 212 Edward Street, Belhaven, with her parents and sister.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Lupton served German chocolate cake and coffee, to the following members: Mesdames J. H. Purvis, Angus Miller, E. W. Midgett, Sr., L. A. Knight, Roy Justice, Andrew Hodges, Paul Dawson, J. R. Brown and the program chairman, Miss Brinson.
