PARKING LOT CLOSED TO PUBLIC IN BELHAVEN

The parking lot adjacent to the Post Office long used by the public was permanently closed to the public on Tuesday when Jim Antoniadis of Norfolk, owner of the property had a barricade placed around the area.

Mr. Antoniadis, a former Belhaven resident, appeared before the Belhaven Town Board of Aldermen on Monday night and refused to rent the lot or give the Town 10 days to secure other facilities before closing it.

Several delegations appeared before the Board—Russell Johnston speaking for the local American Legion delegation asked the board to rescind a previous resolution barring carnivals showing within the City limits. The Legion sponsor the Independence day celebration annually and depends largely upon proceeds from the Carnival to finance the celebration, according to Mr. Johnston who also pointed out many activities of the Legion which work for the civic good of the community. After considerable discussion, members of the board voted to allow the Legion to bring in a carnival this year, but reserved the right to restrain carnivals in the future, depending upon the conduct of the one this year.

A group of colored citizens appeared to inquire what action had been taken in regard to their request made at a previous meeting, that a colored policeman be hired. Mayor Younce assured them it is being given favorable consideration but that he and the board thought it best to let the matter ride until a new chief of police is hired. According to Mayor Younce several applications are now under consideration.

Charlie Smith, Street department head asked and was given permission to begin work on the water front at the community center, along with other improvements needed before the center opens for the summer.

Harold Lupton, city clerk asked that something be done about the trash dump, located near the intersection of old Highway 264 and the bypass east of town. Mr. Lupton suggested that new gates be built and that signs be erected to prevent the dumps being seen from the highway. He was given permission to carry out the project.

A delegation from the Town Board will attend the meeting of the State Highway Commission in the near future, to favor a proposed highway to connect highway 264 with 64 through the Grassy Ridge section.

Mayor Younce appointed Mrs. C. F. Swindell as registrar for the April election.

Board members attending Monday night's meeting were Otis Johnston, C. R. Potter, C. B. Tillman, Ralph Edwards and Dick Taylor; also attending were City clerk, Harold Lupton, secretary Mrs. Harold White and City attorney D. D. Topping.

BELHAVEN BOY HONORED

Bryan Ashford of Belhaven has won numerous honors with his Four-H club project work. In 1958 he showed the Grand Champion steer at the Beaufort County Junior Livestock Show and Sale. He also had the Grand Champion at the district Coastal show at New Bern in 1959 and in 1960 he took Reserve Champion honors at the county show in Washington, and at present he is fattening three steers in preparing for the show this year.

Bryan was a member of Beaufort County Four-H Judging team in 1960. He comes by his interest in cattle naturally, he is the nephew and adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hackett of Belhaven. Billy Hackett is one of the foremost cattlemen in the area and is widely known for his Hereford herd.

Bryan has recently purchased two purebred Herefords with money he earned on his Four-H projects; and to be a cattleman in his own right in the future. He grows some of his own feed and buys the supplement and other required feeds with his own money. He works with his uncle and is getting the best kind of training in the work he has chosen.

The Eighth grade student at John A. Wilkinson school has other Four-H club projects, at present he has a small orchard consisting of peach, pear, plum and apple trees. During National Four-H Club Week March 4-11 Bryan was featured in The Rural Spotlight by the Washington Daily News.

The Belhaven Four-H club members were busy during National Four-H club week March 4-11. All clubs did something special, some made posters stressing different 4-H activities. A very pretty poster was put in the school lunch room by the intermediate groups. It showed the importance of health to an active boy and girl.

The senior 4-H club members worked especially hard. A bulletin board stating the 4-H pledge was put in the elementary building, and one displaying the 4-H Health Project was set up in the high school library. In addition to making posters, the Seniors also made 4-H con-terpieces for all tables in the lunchroom. There were two articles written for the National 4-H club week spread, one of which is the above article.

The three 4-H clubs have worked very hard to put 4-H across this past week; they hope by showing the many benefits of 4-H to interest others in joining them in their march toward better living for their club, their community and their country.

BOOSTER CLUB MEETS

The Athletic Boosters club of the John A. Wilkinson High School, Belhaven, met in the school library on Wednesday, March 8, with Clifford Jones, president, presiding. The main topic of discussion was the annual banquet, which will be held this year on Friday, April 14, at Hub's Reck at seven o'clock. On this occasion trophies and letters will be presented for all three sport—baseball, basketball, and football. Invitations will be extended to all eligible students to be guests of the club.

Tickets will be on sale within several days. Parents of the students and Boosters' club members will have first opportunity to purchase the tickets. The purchase of a ticket for $2.50 pays for the dinner of the holder and that of one of the students. Each adult must have a ticket.
