MRS. M. L. WINDLEY, Representative—Telephone WH 3-3061

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

Unit No. 249 Of the American Legion Auxiliary of Belhaven met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charlie Sutton.

Mrs. Thurman Spencer presided. Arrangements of summer flowers were used. The June meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Charles McHamev, Jr.

Mrs. Thurman Spencer, Mrs. J. H. Harrison and Mrs. M. L. Windley from the committee selling the poppies on Poppy Day. There will be a booth on the street and door to door selling will be done by the Boy Scouts.

National Poppy Day each year is observed for the purpose of putting before the public the memorial Poppy, made by the hands of soldiers in hospitals who do not have a means of livelihood.

Funds derived from this are used for the needs of Veterans and their families.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Spencer, served pie and fruit punch, carrying out a pastel color scheme.

PUNGOAN BOOK CLUB

Mrs. John Boger and Mrs. Harold Lupton were hostesses to the Pungoan Book Club at the home of Mrs. Lupton in Belhaven Thursday evening.

Mrs. Paul Dawson, program chairman, presented three eighth grade students, Anne Boger, Carol Baker and Libby Fussell, who gave a review of their study of North Carolina government. Using charts and graphs prepared by classmates, Tommy Sawyer and Graham Boyd, the girls explained government on the local and state levels.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. R. D. Mitchell, president; Mrs. J. H. Purvis, first vice-president; Mrs. Jesse Taylor second vice-president; Miss Loyce Brinson, secretary; Mrs. Angus Miller, treasurer; and Mrs. H. L. Harvey, card chairman.

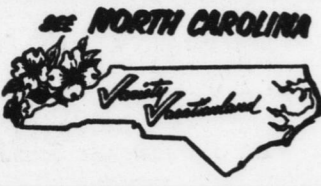

The hostesses served lime ice frappe and cake

BELHAVEN NATIVE TO COMPETE IN CONTEST

The daughter of a former resident of Belhaven named "Miss Columbus", Nebraska, and will compete for the title of "Miss Nebraska" in the Miss America contest.

Miss Louise Elaine Grose is the granddaughter of Mrs. Scott Foreman of Belhaven and the daughter of the former Mary Foreman. She is 18 years old and a freshman at Wesleyan University, Columbus, Nebraska. Her winning talent performance was a dramatic sketch for which she also designed the stage setting and lighting effects.

Miss Grose is expected to accompany her mother to Belhaven for a visit this summer.

WILDLIFE MEETING IN EDENTON ON JUNE 2nd

E. L. Mosley, wildlife protector of Tyrrell County, announced that the Wildlife Resources Commission will hold a series of public hearings in each of the Commission's nine districts to give sportsmen an opportunity to express their opinions regarding the 1961 - 1962 hunting and trapping regulations.

Mosley said that the Commission met in Raleigh May 10, to establish a set of proposed regulations that will be presented at the hearings. Mosley urged that local sportsmen attend the District 1 hearing scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the court house in Edenton on June 2. Up for consideration this year, 1961-62, is a proposal that the squirrel season be opened statewide on October 16, and close January 1.

The best way to do good to ourselves, is to do it to others; the right way to gather, is to scatter. — Seneca
