MANTEO GIRL IS BRIDE OF NAGS HEAD MAN

Saturday Afternoon Ceremony Unites Couple in Methodist Church in Manteo

Miss Sandra Gail Dowdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry Dowdy of Manteo, became the bride of Tony Darnell Tillett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Gregory Tillett of Nags Head, at three o'clock Saturday afternoon, October 21, in Mount Olivet Methodist Church, Manteo.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold F. Leatherman in a setting of white gladioli, palms and candles. Mrs. Rennie Williamson, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied John H. Long who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her brother, Gary Dowdy, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white taffeta made with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in wedding points over the hands and a full skirt. She carried a prayer book showered with satin streamers and topped with a white orchid. Her shoulder length veil fell from a seed pearl crown.

Miss Jo Ann Ballance of Greenville was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of emerald green taffeta, fashioned with round neckline, fitted bodice, half-way sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a small crown with brief circular veil and carried a cascade bouquet of pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Tessie Tillett, Mrs. Jeffrey Midgett, Mrs. C. C. Duvall, Mrs. Roy Gray and Mrs. Arnold Tolson, Jr., were bridesmaids. They wore gold gowns and headpieces identical to those of the maid of honor and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Omie Tillett, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Jeffrey Midgett, Arnold Tolson, Jr., Larry Holmes, James O. Basnight, Jr. and Jerry Austin.

Mrs. Lyna Harbour was mistress of ceremonies.

The mother of the bride wore a beige lace dress, matching accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Immediately after the wedding the bride's mother entertained at a reception in the educational building of the church. The gold and green theme was carried out at the refreshment table. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Lyna Harbour and presented to the receiving line. Miss Bonnie Lee Gibbs registered the guests. Mrs. Mae Wiggins, aunt of the bride, of Norfolk, Va., served the wedding cake. Mrs. Gary Dowdy, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Rosalie Groce, aunt of the bride, New York City, presided at the punch bowl.

For their wedding trip to Jamestown and Williamsburg, Va., the bride wore a green wool suit with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Arvilla Owens and daughter, Angelia; Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Jones, Mrs. Judy Griggs, and Mrs. Mae Wiggins, of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Groce and children, Douglas and Karen, of New York City; and the bride's grandfather, F. A. Dowdy of Grandy.

The bride is a graduate of Manteo High School and attended secretarial school in Norfolk, Va. The bridegroom is a Senior in Manteo High school, and the couple will make their home in Manteo.

Miscellaneous Shower

On October 14 the bride was given a miscellaneous shower by Miss Tessie Tillett, Mrs. C. C. Duvall, Mrs. Roy Gray, Mrs. Jeffrey Midgett and Miss Jo Ann Ballance. Cake and punch were served.

After-Rehearsal Party

On Friday night, following the rehearsal, the wedding party was entertained by Mrs. Fred Basnight and Mrs. Laura Hayman at the home of the former. Punch, cake, mints and nuts were served to the approximately 34 guests present.

NORFOLK MUSICIAN PLAYS FOR ROANOKE ISLAND CLUB

Ludwig Diehn of Norfolk, Va., was guest artist appearing before the Roanoke Island Music Club at the October meeting at the home of Mrs. Rennie Williamson in Manteo, Thursday night, October 19. Mr. Diehn played an original piano composition "Fantasy," and followed this with a recording made of his fourth symphony, with the Rotterdam Philharmonic orchestra. Mr. Diehn, who was born in Singapore of German parents, was educated in Germany, graduating from the University of Rostock with a Doctor of Laws degree. He has written a number of symphonies, as well as other works. He came to the United States in 1937, and in 1959 received the DAR American award for outstanding naturalized American citizen.

His program was attended by a number of visitors, as well as club members. During the social hour Mrs. Leo Midgett, club president, poured coffee, and the hostesses, Mrs. Midgett, Mrs. Robert F. Gibbs, Mrs. T. D. Etheridge and Mrs. T. Reid Cabe, served party sandwiches, cakes, nuts and mints.
