THE VANN LATHAMS ARE AWARDED HONOR

Distinguished Citizens Award From
Chamber of Commerce Goes
To Man and Wife Team

For the first time the Belhaven's Distinguished Citizens Award was presented to a husband and wife team, Vann and Hester Latham. The Award is presented annually by the Belhaven Chamber of Commerce.

Axon Smith, president, cited the many fields of service to the community in which the Lathams have been leaders. He paid special tribute for their efforts in establishing both a Special Education Class and a class for Trainable Retarded children in the local school. Both are active in church work, they serve on the county chapter of the Cancer Society and have headed the March of Dimes drive; have been leaders in the P.T.A. Mr. Latham is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce, and has served on the Belhaven Board of Aldermen and the Light and Water Commission, as well as a past Commander of the American Legion Post No. 249. Mrs. Latham is a past president of Unit No. 249 of the American Legion Auxiliary and of the Matcha Pungo Garden Club.

Axon Smith presided and introduced special guests which included Marcus Block, the North Carolina Manager For the Kanner Company, owners of the Belhaven Manufacturing Company.

Special recognition was given Mrs. Mary King Mitchell, recipient of last year's award. The Rev. Angus Miller speaker of the evening, was introduced by A. L. Gaylord.

William Hackett announced that Congressman Dallas Alford, chairman of the Steering Committee of the Coastal Plain Area and Development Commission, had extended an invitation to Chamber members to attend a meeting in the cafeteria at East Carolina College on April 11.

On the board of directors Roy Smith, Russell Johnston, Ralph Edwards and Howard Voliva were elected for a three year term.

It just makes good sense for you to choose your jeweler before you select your diamond. Why? Because unless you know diamonds, you have no way of knowing if you're getting true value or just an inferior diamond.
At our store you can buy a fine diamond for as little as $500. And we know and guarantee the quality and value of every diamond we sell.
