BELHAVEN BOYS TAKE AURORA; LASSIES LOSE

Aurora played host to the Belhaven Bulldogs basketball team on Friday night in homecoming games. The Aurora Trojanettes won in their game by a 45-30 count while the Belhaven boys gained a 60-49 victory to go into a tie for second place in the standings with Bath.

In the girls game, Coach Callwell Hutson's forwards were shooting well and showed a good defense.

Leading the Trojanettes in scoring were Joyce Jones with 18, and Betty Berry with 10, followed by Darnell Lewis with seven, Joan Cayton eight, and Beth Bonner two. Also seeing action were Jane Spence, Annette Holahan, Linda Pipkin, Carole Cayton, Linda Reddit, Nonie Austin and Maggie Beth Godley.

For the Belhaven Lassies, Betsy Burbage had nine, Claudia Taylor 12, Mary Etta Smith four, Pat Sadler three, and Mary Lee Hoff one. Also playing were Hook Baum, Deb Younce, Peggy Cox, Linda Douglas, Jackie Wilkinson, and Winnie Simmons.

Aurora: 14 10 15 6 45

Boys Game

The Trojans, led by Ben Thompson with 25 points, did not have enough power to counter a 27-point effort by Scooter Griffin of the Bulldogs and Rodney Gaylord with 15 points.

Jimmie Rice, Aurora forward, ran into foul trouble, getting four in the first half, and had to sit out the third period.

Following Thompson in the scoring column for Aurora were Jimmie Rice with six, Mickey Robinson four, Floyd Peed two, Steve Broome 10, Hiram Paul two, John Sawin also played but did not score.

Griffin's 27 and Gaylord's 15 led Belhaven scoring, while David Kilpatrick had five, Johnny Cox five, Doug Clark six, and Howard Riddick two.

Belhaven led all the way. "This boy Griffin must be about the best in the country" remarked Hutson. "We just can't seem to be able to stop him." Hutson thought his big man, Ben Thompson played a good game off both backboards, in addition to scoring 25 points.

"Most valuable players" picked in the games were Claudia Taylor for Belhaven and Beth Bonner for Aurora in the girls game, while for the boys it was Ben Thompson for Aurora and Rodney Gaylord for Belhaven.

Pretty Donna Walker was chosen as homecoming queen and was crowned by Carolyn Allen, last year's homecoming and tournament queen.

NO-ACCIDENT RECORD IN BELHAVEN BROKEN

On Saturday evening about 8:30 an automobile driven by Joe O'Neal of Rt 1, Panteo, struck John Omond of Belhaven. The accident occurred on Panteo Street, and marred Belhaven's no-accident record of long standing.

According to Police Chief Sam Boger, O'Neal stated that Omond ran in front of his car suddenly and that he was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting him. The victim was thrown over the hood and into the windshield of the vehicle.

At first it was thought that Omond was seriously hurt, but he is now recovering satisfactorily at the Pungo District Hospital. No charges have been filed, pending further investigation and the outcome of the victim's injuries.

BELHAVEN MAN DIES VISITING HIS DAUGHTER

Abner W. Carty, long-time machinshop operator and highly regarded citizen of Belhaven, died Friday night in a Warren hospital following a critical illness of 10 days. He had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Duke Jones.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. James Episcopal church with the Rev. Angus Miller, rector, officiating. Burial was in the Oddfellows cemetery.

Palbearers were Jack and George Riddick, Reginald Windley, W. P. O'Neal, Lester Johnston and Charlie Smith.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Duke Jones of Warrenton and Mrs. Claude Cannon of Tarp Springs, Fla., one brother, Frank Carty of Winston-Salem;

CONSTRUCTION STARTED

Construction was started last week toward equipping a dredging barge for the Magnet Cove Barium Corporation with headquarters at their lot in Belhaven, adjoining the Woodstock Electric Corporation. The work being done at the "Mageobar" yard is under the supervision of W. H. Powell and W. R. Morgan. According to Mr. Powell it could be done at less expense elsewhere, but is being done here in order that Mr. Powell may become better acquainted with the men on the job.

It is hoped that within the next few months much progress will be forthcoming in the phosphate industry in the Belhaven vicinity.

Mr. Carty was a member of St. James Episcopal church.

JUNIORS LEARN FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS

The Matcha Pungoetts Junior Garden Club of Belhaven met Saturday afternoon at the home of the Counselor, Miss Loyce Brinson, Linda Rouse presided. Miss Brinson gave a program on the birds seen in this area during the winter months, and with colored pictures pointed out features of each bird which aid in identifying them. She urged all members to feed and water the birds, especially during the extreme cold weather when the birds are unable to find feed for themselves.

Miss Brinson then exhibited equipment used in flower arranging, and demonstrated the steps in designing a triangular arrangement. Each member made an all green triangular arrangement. Everyone is looking forward to holding a flower show for their parents in the
