

C & D GROUP
BEGINS DARE
MEET SUNDAY

Will Continue Through Tuesday;
Many Expected to Remain for Week

The North Carolina Board of Conservation and Development will hold its quarterly meeting in Dare County, beginning Sunday and continuing through Monday and Tuesday of next week. Governor Sanford will be present.

Most of the members are expected to arrive at the meeting headquarters, the Dolphin Motor Court, by Sunday afternoon. Sunday's schedule includes visit with a local fisherman as he sets his beach seine at Nags Head. Later in the evening a social hour and a dinner at the Shrine Club are planned.

Alvah H. Ward, Jr., Chairman of the Dare Waterways Improvement Committee's Oregon Inlet Project, will preside at the Sunday evening Shrine Club session. The Rev. K. L. Whitney, minister of St. Andrews by the Sea, will give the invocation.

Monday morning an Oasis Restaurant breakfast will get the board started on the day's events. L. Warrick Gurkin, Jr. is to serve as host at the breakfast. The first official business session is scheduled for 9 a. m. at the Manteo High School auditorium where the meeting will be called to order by Dr. Mott P. Blair, Vice-Chairman of the Board. Dr. W. W. Harvey, Jr., Mayor of Manteo, will welcome the board.

The business of the morning will include consideration and approval of the minutes of the Board's April meeting which was held in Greenville. Following this time will be allotted for public hearings. Anyone wishing to be heard on any matter by the board will be given time during this period. Afterwards, the board will hear division head reports and adjourn for 10 a. m. committee meetings which, with time out for lunch, will continue all day.

Governor Terry Sanford will speak at a Shrine Club dinner for the group Monday night. Dr. W. W. Harvey, Jr. will preside at the dinner and Dare County Sheriff Frank M. Cahoon will give the invocation. The Governor will be introduced by Martin Kellogg, Jr., a Manteo lawyer.

Tuesday morning at Manteo High School, division heads of the Board will meet and at 10 a. m. the Board will convene for committee reports and additional business.

The town of Manteo is acting as host to this quarterly meeting of the Board of Conservation and Development. Kill Devil Hills and Nags Head are serving as co-hosts.

An entertainment program for wives of the members of the board has been planned for Monday. From the Dolphin Motor Court the ladies will ride a high school bus to the edge of Roanoke Island where they will be taken on a tour of the Elizabethan Gardens and Fort Raleigh. Then they will go to Wanchese for a luncheon.

Monday night a 6:30 social hour is scheduled for the Shrine Club and a dinner will follow.

FOR BELOVED DIRECTOR

CLIFTON BRITTON NIGHT TO HONOR
MEMORY; AID SCHOLARSHIP FUND

"The Lost Colony" will pay tribute to its former director, the late Clifton Britton, with a special performance on Sunday, July 21.

Britton, the beloved Northampton County native and Goldsboro high school teacher, worked with the symphonic drama for 15 years prior to his death last February. All gate receipts from the special performance will go to the Clifton Britton Memorial Scholarship Fund, a special fund for deserving students set up in his honor shortly before his death.

All tickets for the July 21 performance will be sold on a general admission basis at $2 for adults and $1 for children.

There will be a brief memorial service at intermission honoring Britton. Britton began his association with "The Lost Colony" as stage manager in 1948. He succeeded Samuel Selden as director in 1955, a position which he filled with distinction until his death early this year.

REUNION PLANNED BY COAST'S GREATEST BENEFACTOR JULY 21

HON. LINDSAY CARTER WARREN, who through 50 years of public life has earned the title of the Coastland's Greatest Benefactor, in spite of his annual declaration that he never hopes to get back to the Dare Coast for another vacation, is now looking forward to joining with his wife, their two sons and daughter, their in-laws and grandchildren on Sunday, July 21, for a week at the Croatan Hotel at Kill Devil Hills, an area which he grew to love so deeply during the tenure of the founders of the inn, the late Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Griggs.

Kill Devil Hills holds a solid place in his heart too, because from it centered so many of his activities in behalf of the Coast Guard Service, when he first went to Congress, back in 1924, and it was there that he conceived the idea of a memorial to the achievements of the Wright Brothers, founders of aviation. The objective was steered through Congress and is now a national memorial, where the Government has expended more than a million dollars. And which has attracted millions of tourists, with consequent spending of vast sums of money which has gone toward the livelihood of so many citizens and the investment of millions of dollars on the Dare Coast, giving the spending-happy county officials plenty of money to throw around through the years.

Mr. Warren, while Representative in Congress, got through See WARREN, Page Six

DRIVE FOR HATTERAS MEDICAL CENTER FUNDS MOVING AHEAD

HATTERAS. — Launching a drive for funds with which to build a modern medical center in this village, local residents contributed more than $3,000 at the opening meeting called to discuss the urgent need for such a facility on the Outer Banks.

Further contributions, plus the proceeds from a fish fry and dance, now have pushed the total above the $6,000 level. The virtually free acquisition of a suitable site for the building already appears assured, and tentative plans for a modern facility which could later be enlarged now are under study. After cost estimates are received, the final go of the fund-raising campaign will be determined.

When announcing a contribution of $1,000 to the fund, the Charles F. Johnson Foundation volunteered to make a loan of $20,000 or more in order to speed the construction of the new medical center.

Charles Johnson of Asheville, resident and a property owner here, also stated he would solicit contributions from members of the Hatteras Marlin Club, of which he is a director, to help pay off the loan which will be non-interest-bearing. A member of the club who lives in Charlotte, when matching Johnson's donation, also is considering a further contribution of a like amount when the drive for funds hits the half-way mark.

When the property transaction has been completed and the monetary goal assured, directors of the Hatteras Village Civic Association are confident they will be able to attract an experienced family physician to locate here permanently.

The urgent need for a doctor and medical facility here was brought home strongly to all families living between Buxton and Ocracoke when the severe storm of March 7, 1962, cut an inlet across Hatteras Island—north of Buxton, and again last November when another storm washed out the temporary bridge across the new inlet. Located about mid-way between See DRIVE, Page Five

L. A. CLARK JOINS DARE WELFARE STAFF

LAWRENCE A. CLARK, a child case worker recently added to the Dare County Welfare Department staff and the third case worker on duty in the county, is a man who feels his job came about as something more than coincidence.

Clark, who had long liked to work with children and who had considered welfare work vaguely, was handed a penny piece of bubble gum by one of his 7th grade pupils in Buxton last year. He took the gum and read the fortune on the wrapper. The fortune, ironically enough, said career would be in social and welfare work. The next day a member of the welfare board contacted Clark as a possible candidate for a position as a child case worker. Coincidence? Perhaps, but Clark says "it is something I feel like the Lord had a hand in."

So, after five years as a 7th grade school teacher in Buxton, Clark joined the Dare County Welfare staff on June 4th and is now looking forward to a career in this field.

This fall he hopes to enter the School of Social Work at Richmond Professional Institute See CLARK, Page Five

$90,000 ASKED
FOR INJURIES
BY KRIDERS

Harry F. Hayman and Sheldon D. Midgett Defendants,
Result of 1960 Mishap

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Krider of Manteo are asking $90,000 in damages in two lawsuits filed in Dare County Superior Court against Harry F. Hayman and Sheldon D. Midgett, both of Manteo.

The suit has grown out of an incident in 1960 in which the Krider's claim Mrs. Krider received permanent injuries while riding as a passenger in Chop's Taxi, a taxicab business operated by Hayman.

According to Mrs. Krider she was riding in the front right seat of the taxi going from her home to downtown Manteo on June 13, 1960, when Midgett, driving an automobile, came up behind the taxi and struck it while it was in motion. She says when this happened Hayman increased his speed and began to drive in a reckless manner. She claims he did not stop and let her out, although she asked him to and Midgett, whom she says was intoxicated at the time, struck the taxi two more blows with his automobile.

As a result of the incident Mrs. Krider complains she was thrown against the dash board, floor and floor of the car and received a brain concussion, a lumbar sprain, a left knee sprain, and contusion of the kidneys. She says she developed bronchopneumonia and now suffers with a psychophysiological vasomotor reaction, accompanied by a state of anxiety and has memory lapses. She says she cannot do her household work and that she cannot walk without stumbling.

Her husband complains that he has already incurred $2,125.41 in hospital, doctor and medicine bills for his wife and anticipates at least $2,500 more. Since she is not able to do housework, he has had to keep help in the home. His suit is for $80,000 damages; Mrs. Krider's is for $60,000.

RECORD MARLIN
FOR SEASON OFF
OREGON I. TUES.

Newport News Angler and Captain Austin Make Season Record Catch

Steve Wayne Thomas of Newport News caught his first blue marlin on Tuesday aboard Capt. Bill Austin's cruiser The Boys. It was also the first blue marlin taken by an angler aboard an Austin-skipped boat. He was a former mate aboard Oregon Inlet cruisers.

Unusual feature about the catch was that it was not only the first blue marlin for the angler and his skipper, but also the largest. The fish, scaling at 653 pounds was the largest blue marlin ever landed by an angler off Oregon Inlet.

The giant fish measured 13 feet and eight inches from tip to tip and 66 inches around its girth. Angler Thomas was using a 12/0 Penn Senator reel mounted on a Hornell rod when he made the catch. He was using squid for bait and the weight test of his line. (Glad-dons) was 115 pounds. It took Thomas two hours to boat the big fish.

The Thomas catch is one of many made during the past week as the billfish season for white and blue marlin and sailfish was hitting an early July peak. The 1963 billfish season has been twice as good a 1962. This is reflected in the fact that already this year more than 300 blue marlin have been caught off Oregon Inlet and Hatteras, the famous game fishing ports See MARLIN, Page Five

HATTERAS VOTERS
APPROVE DISTRICT

In Hatteras last Saturday 94 persons voted in favor of a tax for fire protection in the Hatteras Fire District and only 8 voted against the measure.

The new tax, which is not to exceed fifteen cents per $100 valuation on all taxable property, will be used to maintain and improve fire fighting equipment already owned by villagers.

Existing equipment in Hatteras was purchased in the past by individual and group contributions in the village.

HAYMAN CLAN LEADER

REV. LOUIS D. HAYMAN, Dare County native, founder of the annual Hayman re-union celebration in Dare County, who will attend the program on Saturday of next week at Manns Harbor. He is now retired and living in Southport, after a distinguished career in the Methodist ministry.

HAYMAN REUNION
MEETS JULY 20 AT MANNS HARBOR

Annual Gathering of Prominent Family Is Headed By Retired Minister

The date of the annual re-union of the Hayman Clan, according to the yearly plan of meeting, falls this year on Saturday, July 20, 1963. The Haymans, their friends and visitors will gather at Manns Harbor, and the meeting will be in the Community Building. The first President Rev. L. D. Hayman of Southport will call the gathering to order at ten a. m., and the doings will proceed from this hour on through the day until the middle or late afternoon, at Elbert Cox, Southeast Regional See HAYMAN, Page Five

EAGLE FROM MANTEO

TIMOTHY GAYLORD OFF TO GREECE WITH SCOUTS

The warm winds of Greece blowing, as they have for centuries, over the sparkling Aegean sea and the same stars above the campfires that Homer sang under at night; around you are strange faces and stranger languages, but the fire has burned low and friendship is running strong.

A dream? Yes. A dream come true for Timothy Gaylord, a 17-year-old Manteo Eagle Scout who will leave Tuesday on a journey that will take him over seas and continents to Athens, Greece for the 11th annual World Scout Jamboree.

According to estimates made by Boy's Life, the official Boy Scout magazine in the United States, 500 boys have been chosen from among five million in this country to represent the U. S. at the Jamboree. Timothy is one of those chosen.

From Manteo Timothy will go to Philadelphia for two days of pre-Jamboree orientation, then he will go to New York City for two more days of preparation and beginning friendships with other boys who are going.

Finally, on July 22, a chartered plane will begin the first leg of a whirlwind touring journey that will take him through several countries and thousands of experiences.

The first stop is London where three days of tours and sightseeing await. From London a sightseeing journey with frequent stops will take Timothy and the other Scouts through Lucerne, Venice, and then to Athens. The return trip includes stops in Rome, Lousanne, and Paris as well.

Once in Greece the U. S. Scouts will participate in Jamboree events with 10,000 scouts from countries all over the non-communist world. They will compete in "Get Acquainted" field games and classical games on the site where Creek athletes battled for honors in former times. A stiff physical fitness obstacle course awaits them too.

There will be campfire ceremonies, Scouting displays, a city of tents and loads of charcoal for cooking. There will be campfires and songs at night and pranks and the dozens of other things Scouts do during Jamborees.

See GAYLORD, Page Six

LOST COLONY ATTENDANCE
EXPECTED TO SKYROCKET;
FEATURED NIGHTS PREVAIL

Friday Night Program Will Salute Park Service; On Saturday, H.D. Members Expected in Abundance; "Virginia-Carolina Friendship Night" Next Wednesday With Governors Sanford and Harrison Present.

PARKS DIRECTOR TO ATTEND FRIDAY NIGHT

CONRAD WIRTH, Director of the National Park Service, is scheduled to be a special guest at the Friday night (July 12) performance of "The Lost Colony" in the Waterside Theatre on Roanoke Island. Mr. Wirth will speak briefly at intermission after an introduction by Mrs. Fred W. Morrison, chairman of the Roanoke Island Historical Association.

Personnel of the Cape Hatteras National Seashore, headed by Superintendent James B. Myers, also will be guests at the performance of the symphonic drama at 8:15 P.M. (EST) at Elbert Cox, Southeast Regional See WIRTH, Page Five

The Dare Coast and Outer Banks will be visited during the next 10 days by a large number of distinguished people - including the Governors of the North Carolina and Virginia - who have been invited to this area to attend special performances of "The Lost Colony" drama.

Governor Terry Sanford of North Carolina and Governor Alberts Harrison, Jr., of Virginia, and their families, will be on hand Wednesday night, July 17, for "Virginia-North Carolina Friendship Night" at "The Colony". They will be joined by a sizeable group of other state and local governmental officials.

Conrad Wirth, Director of the National Park Service, will come down from his headquarters in Washington, D. C., to attend "Park Service Night" at the Waterside Theatre on Friday, July 12. Also in the audience that night will be members of the newly formed Historic Coastland Association who will be holding the first meeting of their officers and directors at Fort Raleigh, the No. 1 historic site in the Nation, on Friday afternoon. Senator P. D. Midgett, Jr., of Engelhard is President of the Association which was organized to promote travel to the many historic attractions along the coast.

On Saturday night, July 13, The Lost Colony is looking for its biggest crowd since the standing - room - only opening night through who turned out to launch the season and see TV star Andy Griffith. "Home Demonstration Clubs Night" is the Saturday "special" and hundreds of farm women and their families from all over the State have made reservations.

The State Board of Conservation and Development will be meeting at Nags Head Sunday through Tuesday, July 14-16, and all of the members and their See COLONY, Page Six

DEMONSTRATION
WOMEN WILL BE PLENTIFUL S.A.T.

Capacity Crowd Expected; National President A Special Guest

Mrs. Homer A. Greene of Tutwiler, Miss., the National president of the Home Demonstration Council, will be a special guest at the Saturday night (July 13) performance of "The Lost Colony" in the Waterside Theatre on Roanoke Island. It will be "Home Demonstration Clubs Night".

Mrs. Greene is on Roanoke Island visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Grubbs, who is a dancer in this year's production of the play. Her son-in-law, Bob Grubbs, is playing the role of Sir Walter Raleigh for the second year.

Mrs. John Winfield of Pine-town, the President-elect of the North Carolina Organization of Home Demonstration Clubs, will appear in a costumed role in one scene of the drama as a special guest performer. She will have the non-speaking role of "Elizabeth Glane—A Meal Grinder" in Scene 2, Act II.

Last year, on "Home Demonstration Night," a capacity crowd of nearly 2,000 persons attended. John W. Fox, general manager, says "The Lost Colony" has received hundred of reservations from farm women all over the State who plan to attend this year. Included will be a group of 39 from Haywood County in the mountains.

Mrs. George Frady of Canton, the 1963 President of the State organization, will be among those in attendance. Representing the Agricultural Extension Service of North Carolina State of the University of North Carolina at Raleigh will be Dr. Eloise Cofer, Assistant Director for Home Economics Programs, and Miss Anamerle Arant, District Home Economics Agent.

In charge of local arrangements is Mrs. Beulah Gaylord, Dare County Home Economics Agent.

GAYLORD

DARE BOY SCOUT
FUND DRIVE WILL START WEDNESDAY

Workers in Nags Head, Kill Devil Hills, Kitty Hawk and Manteo will begin the first fund raising campaign held in Dare County for the Boy Scouts of America in two years Wednesday. Last year no campaign was held because of severe damage to the area from the March storm.

The Scout finance drive commencing in Dare County will help supply the 1963 Tidewater Council budget. Over forty adults have agreed to participate in the local drive. Year before last the county raised $890 in the finance drive.

During the past year Scouting has been on the increase in this area. Presently there are 140 boys and adults participating in two Cub Packs and three Boy Scout Troops. Three local Scouts became Eagle Scouts this year.

This summer a Dare County Scout will represent the United States at the International Jamboree. Timothy Gaylord of Manteo will travel to Greece for the event.

Funds raised in the drive Wednesday will be contributed to the business operation of the Tidewater Council, serving 17,000 Scout affiliates in part of North Carolina and Virginia.