over the years, have taken on a new use. No longer will they be left to gather barnacles beneath the water. These stones are being hauled up to provide structural decoration at Manteo's new shopping center "Ballast Rock."

Conceived by Mrs. Arnold Schiffman (the former Camille Brinkley) shopping center is being built outside Manteo's business district. Right across from Manteo High School along U. S. 264 the new shopping center is being built at the edge of a pine woods. Large parking lots are being cleared, buildings are being constructed, and ballast rocks are being hauled from the sound to decorate new Ballast Rock Shopping Center.

Ballast Rock will, at first, consist of a drug store, a beauty parlor, a gift shop and a sandwich shop with soda fountain. All the buildings will be new and modern and all are expected to carry out the ballast rock motif.

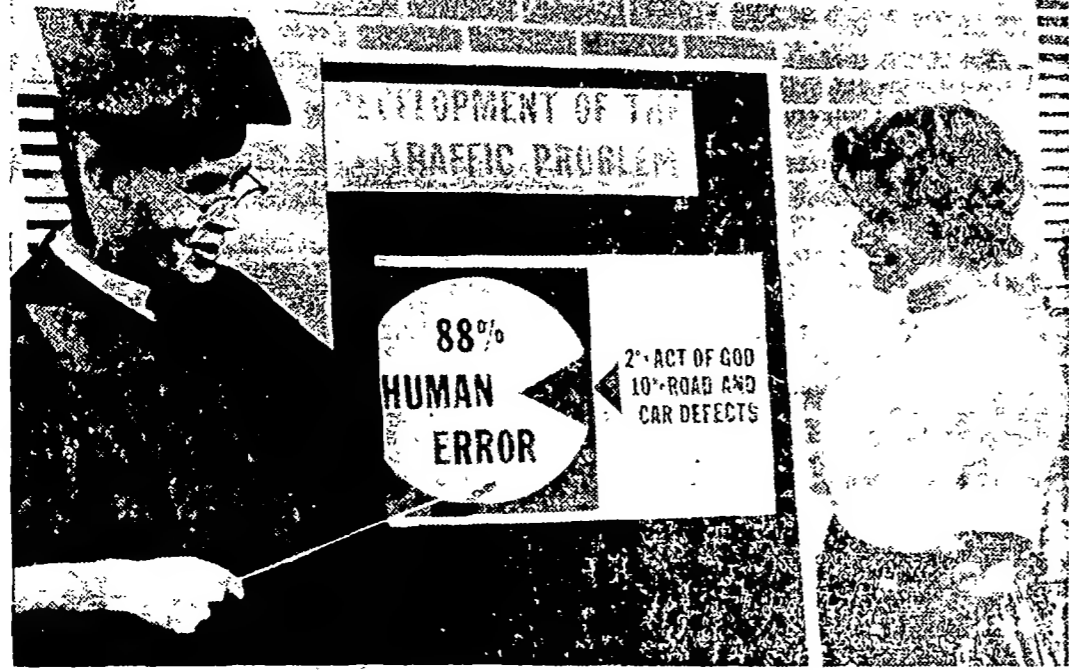

A brand new business going into a brand new building, Carwood Pharmacy is the first business in Ballast Rock Shopping Center to open to the public. It opened July 22.

Though Carwood Pharmacy has been serving its customers a month already, its official opening ceremony will be held today and tomorrow and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fearing, Jr. report a number of treats are in store for their friends and customers who attend the opening ceremonies.

Many valuable prizes are to be given away this week end, including a floor polisher, percolators, electric iron, frying pan, blankets, all from the well-known Universal line; and several Kodak cameras. In addition, favors will be provided for everyone; and such offerings price-wise as 9 cents for a soft drink and hot dog will apply.

A couple who will celebrate their first wedding anniversary soon after the opening of their new business, the Woody Fearing's are happy with Carwood

"OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT" AWARD FOR PERFORMANCE

"PROFESSOR" OLLIS D. GRIFFON of the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles conducts a lecture for Miss Phillis Wood—the Old Prof's way of advertising the agency's accident records division which recently won high honors. Division personnel capped an "outstanding achievement" award from the National Safety Council for a 100 per cent performance rating in the nationwide traffic inventory. The NSC sponsored inventory measures the effectiveness of every state's efforts against accidents.

Woody Fearing, a native Roanoke Islander who attended Manteo High School, received his degree in pharmacy from the University of North Carolina in 1959. He passed the State Board, exams and was duly licensed in 1960. After leaving Carolina he was associated with Fearing's, Inc. of Manteo.

Mrs. Fearing, the former Carlyle Edwards and daughter of Manteo dentist Linus M. Edwards, came to Roanoke Island three years ago and returned seasonally until last summer when wedding plans kept her here permanently. She attended LSU where she studied psychology.

After their marriage both Carlyle and Woody were anxious to go into business on their own. This year when opportunity came with the new shopping center, they were the first to answer the knock. Today their dream is realized as Carwood officially opens its doors to the public. Their partnership in this new venture is symbolized by the Pharmacy's name, Carwood, a combination of Carlyle and Woody.

While Woody, with his training in pharmacy, specializes in drugs and medical preparations, Carlyle takes pride in Carwood's cosmetic department and intends to make it one of the most extensive and complete in this area. Already behind the clean, new glass and Formica counters shelves of name brand products are backing up her promise to give Manteo a complete line of cosmetics. In stock now are such brands as Ponds, Yardley, Revlon, Coty, Lenthéric (the Tweed line), Eyan (White Shoulders line), Faberge', Dorothy Gray, Cover Girl, Lavin (with perfumes such as Arpage, My Sin, and Crescendo), Wristy's (French Lilies), Semilton (Friendship Garden and Early American Spice), and a complete line of Max Factor products. More are yet to come.

The building housing Carwood Pharmacy contains 2240 feet of floor space and a pre-stressed concrete roof. Between this new type roof and the tiled floor are conditioned air and soft music provide a relaxing atmosphere for the Pharmacy's customers. Ice cream, soft drinks, green and candy are on hand for the hungry as well as a cigarette dispenser. No sandwich grill has been installed since another part of the shopping center near by will provide this service in the future.
