

Obituaries

LLEWELLYN H. DAVENPORT

Llewellyn Harrison Davenport, 65, of Murfreesboro died Thursday night in his home.

A native of Columbia, he was a son of Joseph F. and Mrs. Sarah Jones Davenport and the husband of Mrs. Lillian Brickhouse Davenport. He was a member of Columbia Baptist Church.

Besides his wife, he is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Era Grimsley of Norfolk; Mrs. Martha Page of Bonita, Calif.; Mrs. Ruth Brewer of Victoria, Tex.; and Mrs. Julia Adcock of Richmond; nine sons, Stephen H. Davenport and Julian Wood Davenport of Murfreesboro; Charles Gray Davenport of Albany, Ga.; Joseph F. Davenport of Chesapeake; the Rev. James G. Davenport of Windsor; John W. Davenport of Aurora, Col.; L. H. Davenport, Sr. of Lincoln, Neb.; Dennis H. Davenport of Plano, Tex.; and Wayne D. Davenport of the Air Force stationed at Ft. Bragg; two sisters, Miss Julia Davenport and Mrs. Zera Jackson of Norfolk; a brother, Jerry Davenport of Columbia; and 23 grandchildren.

A funeral service was held Sunday at 3 p.m. in Columbia Cemetery by the Dr. Hargus Taylor.

MRS. MINNIE B. SANDERSON

Mrs. Minnie Barber Sanderson, of Swan Quarter, 82, died Thursday night of last week in the Pungo District hospital in Belhaven after a critical illness of several days.

Mrs. Sanderson was the daughter of the late Cullen and Rena Credle Barber and spent all of her lifetime in Hyde county. She was a member of St. George's Episcopal church at Lake Landing, the Woman's auxiliary and was active in the Sunday school and choir as long as her health permitted.

She was the widow of the late Thomas E. Sanderson. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Eugenia S. Marshall of Swan Quarter; one granddaughter; and one sister, Mrs. A. C. D. Noe of Bath; several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at St. George's Episcopal church at 2:30 p.m. Saturday conducted by the Rev. Paul Means, rector. Burial was in Amity church cemetery at Lake Landing. Pallbearers were Thomas O'Neal, Dick O'Neal, Royden E. Clarke, Sr., John S. Noe, Jimmy Dunbar and Sherill Fisher.

LT. JORGEN HANSEN

Retired Coast Guard Lt. Jorgen Hansen, 80 of 600 Chester St., Norfolk, Va., a veteran of 34 years of service, including World Wars I and II, died Sunday at 2:10 a.m. in Kecoughtan Veterans Hospital.

A native of Larvick, Norway, he lived in Norfolk nine years. He was the husband of Mrs. Gardia T. Hansen.

He was a member of Grand Haven (Mich.) Masonic Lodge 139, Semper Paratus Masonic Lodge 49 of Washington, and Scottish Rite Bodies of Cleveland, where he was a 32nd Degree Mason. He was a Lutheran. Besides his widow, surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Carlise J. Wescott of Norfolk; four grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

A funeral service was conducted Tuesday at 11 a.m. in Twiford Funeral Home, Norfolk, by the Rev. H. I. Tarliffe of St. John's Lutheran Church. Burial with Masonic rites was in Manteco Cemetery.

James Wadsworth Davis, 80, of Wanchese died Wednesday, December 14, at his home after an illness of one month, although he had been in failing health for some time.

Mr. Davis was born in Wanchese on July 22, 1886, the son of William Spencer Davis and Ahwidia Lane Davis. He retired from the U. S. Coast Guard in 1946 after 32 years service, and returned to Wanchese to live. He was a member of Bethany Methodist Church, Wanchese; Manteco Lodge No. 521 A.M. and F. M.; and the Wanchese Ruritan Club.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mildred Midgett Davis; two sons, Capt. Larry L. Davis, US CG, Juneau, Alaska; and James Worth Davis of Huntington Beach, California; two brothers, William Alex Davis and Crowder C. Davis of Wanchese; one sister, Mrs. Nannie Simpson of Portsmouth, Va.; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete at press time Thursday.

ROBERT R. ARMSTRONG

Robert Roland Armstrong, 72, of Elizabeth City died at Albemarle Hospital Tuesday night following an illness of two months.

A native of Tyrrell County, he lived most of his life in Elizabeth City. He was a retired merchant, a member of St. Paul Freeville Baptist Church, and a member of Elizabeth City Lodge Woodmen of the World.

He was the son of the late Robert Jesse and Linda Cahoon Armstrong and the husband of Mrs. Mae Belle Parker Armstrong.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Oscar Hobbs and Mrs. Quinton Onley, Elizabeth City; four sons, Robert, Carlos, Jack and Clayton Armstrong, all of Elizabeth City; two step-daughters, Mrs. Vernon Bright and Mrs. Joe Long of Elizabeth City; one sister, Mrs. Johnnie Everton, Norfolk; one brother, Herbert Armstrong, Elizabeth City; 21 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren; 6 step-grandchildren 6 great-grandchildren.

A funeral service was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Berry Funeral Home by the Rev. J. L. Roberson, pastor of First Christian Church. Burial was in New Hollywood Cemetery.

CHARLES W. GAITHER

Charles Wool Gaither, 89, of Elizabeth City, died Monday afternoon in Albemarle Hospital. He was a native of Hertford, and lived in Elizabeth City for the past 40 years. He was vice president and director of the Atlantic Discount Corp. and was the former owner and manager of the Auto and Gas Engine Works.

Prior to moving to Elizabeth City he was agent for the Norfolk and Southern Railroad. He was a former manager of the mortgage department of Southern Loan and Insurance Co. He was the son of the late W. G. and Elizabeth Wood Gaither, widower of Mrs. Lula Hayes Gaither, a member and former vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church, and a member and past president of the Kiwanis Club.

He is survived by one son, W. H. Gaither of Charlotte; three sisters, Mrs. E. C. Conger of Elizabeth City; Mrs. W. H. Huffines of Fayetteville; and Mrs. R. B. Albertson of Portsmouth; two brothers, the Rev. B. W. Gaither of Chimney Rock and W. G. Gaither of Elizabeth City; three grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in Christ Episcopal Church by

RURITAN LEADERS—Key figures at the annual Greenville-Goldsboro Ruritan District Convention in Pantego Saturday included L. B. Thaxton of Kinston, elected district governor for 1967; John Rateliff of Pantego, outgoing district governor who presided over the sessions; Edwin H. Ringsdale, Ruritan National President, who gave the principal address, and Lewis McNeil of Red Springs, National director, who introduced the speaker and presented the Attendance award. (Photo courtesy Washington Daily News)

JESSE J. BATMAN

Jesse J. Bateman, 79, of Virginia Beach, a former member of the Norfolk Police Division and employed at the Norfolk Naval Base for 30 years, died Tuesday in a Norfolk hospital. A native of Creswell, he was the husband of Mrs. Gladys Knight-Bateman and a son of the late George and Mrs. Martha Turner Bateman. He was a member of the Kempsville Baptist Church and had lived in the Virginia Beach area 55 years.

Others surviving are two step-daughters, Mrs. Mildred R. Sadler of Virginia Beach and Mrs. T. Y. Davis of Springfield, Pa.; a stepson, Elmer T. Bryant of Livonia, Mich.; and two sisters, Mrs. W. R. Smith of Norfolk and Mrs. Martha Clifton of Wyandotte, Mass.

Funeral services were held at the Sound Side Missionary Baptist Church of which she was a member on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. conducted by the Rev. Grady James. Burial was in the family cemetery.

MRS. W. F. BRICKHOUSE

COLUMBIA — Mrs. Margaret Matilda Brickhouse, 85, died Wednesday Dec. 14, 1966 in the Columbia Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

A native and life long resident of Tyrrell County, she was the daughter of the late William S. and Mrs. Jennie Snell and widow of William Franklin Brickhouse.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Marilla Brickhouse Hollis of Columbia and one brother, Henry W. Snell of Chesapeake, Va.

Funeral services were held at the Sound Side Missionary Baptist Church of which she was a member on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. conducted by the Rev. Grady James. Burial was in the family cemetery.

Try Classified for quick results

Leo (Lee) Peele, 76, a native and lifelong resident of Hatteras, died Thursday morning of last week in Albemarle Hospital after a short illness. He was a retired commercial fisherman, son of the late George T. and Minerva Gray Peele, a member of Hatteras Methodist Church and a member of the Woodmen of the World. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Beatrice Austin Peele, three daughters, Mrs. Bertie Dixon, Jr., of Buxton; Mrs. Benjie Barnett of Frisco and Mrs. Jack Leatherwood of Cape May, N. J.; three sons, Wallace Lee, William M. and Nacie Peele all of Hatteras; six sisters, Mrs. Dan Oden, Mrs. Ida Austin, Mrs. Nacie Austin, Mrs. Norman Quiddley and Mrs. Fulton Scarborough all of Hatteras and Mrs. Luther Daniels of Seattle, Washington; one brother, Carlos G. Peele of Hatteras. 17 grandchildren and one one great grandchild. Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Hatteras Methodist Church by the Rev. Hobart W. Burns, Jr., pastor, and the Rev. J. C. Farmer, pastor of Assembly of God Church. The casket pall consisted of red and white carnations, white gladioli and fern. "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "A Golden Tomorrow" were sung by the church choir. Mrs. Alice Gray accompanied at the organ. Pallbearers were Maxton Peele, Jr., Lee Scarborough, Ivey Austin, Donald Oden, Wheeler Ballance and Clarence Jennette. Burial followed in the family cemetery.

William Norman Newbern, Sr., 64, of Powells Point, died at Norfolk General Hospital Saturday afternoon following a short illness. He was a lifetime resident of Currituck County, a retired farmer and merchant, a member of Herbon Methodist Church, former postmaster at Powells Point and former member of Currituck County Board of Education. He was the son of the late Horatio Drinkwater and Fannie Hughes Newbern and the husband of Mrs. Verdine Barrow Newbern. Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles Cuthrell, Camden, Miss Fannie Newbern, Powells Point and Mrs. Lucian Griffin, Raleigh; four sons, William Norman, Jr., Roy Phillip, and Tommy Newbern of Powells Point and Lennie Gray Newbern, Coast Guard, stationed at Fort Macon, Morehead City; two sisters, Mrs. Paul Moss, Sr., High Point, and Mrs. Marshall Forbes, Jarvisburg; two brothers, H. D. Newbern, Jr., Powells Point, and Gilmer H. Newbern, Greenville, S. C. and four grandchildren. A funeral service was conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Hebron Methodist Church by the Rev. E. E. Whitely. Burial was in the family cemetery.

FREE TURKEY advertisement for Westinghouse Appliance, featuring a turkey image and contact information for Fearing's, Inc.

Gifts from Davis advertisement listing various clothing items like sweaters, slacks, pajamas, and shoes for boys and girls, with prices and descriptions.

Food-A-Rama advertisement for Economy Stores, Inc., featuring a variety of food products like turkeys, bacon, bologna, and other grocery items with prices and promotional offers.