DARE SHRINERS WILL DEDICATE NEW STRUCTURE

April 27 Ceremony To Be Preceded by All-Áfternoon 🗄 Fish Fry 4

A fish fry with all the informality of such an occasion will precede the formal dedication April 27 of the new home of the Dare County Shrine Club, according to Arthur Marx, chairman of the dedication ceremonies.

Proceeds of the fish (all-youcan-eat fry will be used for the benefit of crippled and burned children in hospitals. Shrine clubs throughout the country support 16 hospitals for crippled children and two facilities for burned children. The hospitals levy no charge for services to the crippled and/or burned children.

The fish fry, at $1.50 per person, will be held from noon to the public.

The formal dedication cerethe north end of Roanoke Island. These festivities will be open only to members-noblesand their wives.

Robert L. Sides of Rocky Mount, potentate of the Sudan Temple of New Bern, is scheduled to attend the dedication. Nelson B. Banks, recorder of the Sudan Temple, also is scheduled to be present.

Marx said several appointed officers of the Temple at New Bern were expected to be present, along with Shrine dignitaries from other areas of North Carolina and Virginia.

The Dare County club is a part of Sudan Temple.

Clad in cut-off blue denim overalls, a yellow shirt and topped with a tattered straw hat, and in her bare feet, Miss Mitchell rendered "Try to Remember" in a clear soprano voice, accompanying herself on the guitar in the talent competition.

In her second year at Louisburg College, where she is a member of this year's May Court and a participating member of the college's spring concert on May 2, she has completed one semester of voice training and was self-taught in guitar and piano until entering the school.

Juanita, 20, is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mitchell of South Nags Head. She has three sisters and an older brother, all of whom are married. The family, of whom most are musically inclined, moved to Nags Head from Elkins, West Virginia about nine years ago. Juanita began the sixth grade in Manteo schools, graduating in 1966.

At present the newly crowned miss is undecided on a lot of things, whether to do the same talent in the Charlotte event, at which college to apply her scholarship,( she thinks she would | like to teach), and including a summer job.

A spokesman for the Dare Jaycees, sponsors of the pageant expressed "Thanks to every single person in Dare County that the response of everyone in making the pageant a success was so gracious."

DEFENDANTS FAIL TO SHOW, FORCE COURT TO QUIT

District court was ready and villing to dispense justice Friday in the Dare county courthouse In their places were Judge W. S. Privott, Solicitor Wilton Walker, Sheriff Frank Cahoon, Court Reporter Gretchen Goodwin and her recording equipment, and Court Clerk C. S. Meckins. The short docket was spread before the judge, the solicitor, the clerk. Everything appeared to be in readiness. Missing from the scene were ome necessary ingredients. There were no defendants. Whercupon, there was no court. The first case scheduled for trial involved a speeding charge against Ralph W. Stephen of, Washington, D. C. Stephen, who told the arresting officer, District Park Ranger Balfour J. Baum, that he worked for the State Department, failed to show. He had failed to show also on March 29 to plead to a charge of driving 80 miles per hour in a 55-mile zone.

The second case scheduled for trial was one of assault against Willie Simpson. The complaining witness, Charles Berry, was reported in hospital recovering from a wound in the vicinity of an eye. Because Berry couldn't show, Simpson's scheduled third appearance in court in two weeks was postponed. Simpson, had been both a defendant and a prosecuting witness the previous week.

The third case due Friday was one versus LeRoy Doug las, charged with driving without a license A continuance was arranged before court opened. Edgar Preston, Styron, Jr. See COURT, Page Five
