BELHAVEN SENIOR CLASS GIVEN LUNCH, DINNER

BELHAVEN — Senior class members of the John A. Wilkinson High School were entertained at a picnic dinner May 22 and a lunch May 17.

Members of the WSCS of Trinity Methodist Church provided the picnic-style dinner at the Belhaven Community Center. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Topper Bateman, and the Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Peterson.

The lunch was given at the River Forest Manor by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Calfee, "grade parents" of the 1968 seniors. Present were 26 of the 29 seniors, Principal I. L. Leary, Class Sponsor Mrs. Topper Bateman, and Mrs. J. Harold Lupton, eighth grade teacher for the class.

The grade parents presented each a bronze souvenir key. Mrs. Lupton described in limberic form what each key meant to the individual. Mrs. Lupton also read poems that Bill Rich and Melissa Bishop had written to her at their class party in 1964.

Mrs. Boyd gave the seniors a copy of their letter to her when they were in the seventh grade. Mrs. Calfee thanked the youngsters for being a part of their lives through the 12 years they were in school.
