CATFISH CORNER NEWS

The Ladles Lg. outer, 01 ly Saul's Churca held their stemt ly meeting Friday with Mrs. Holia Wood Harris, De Ottomal was les by Mrs. Simbellina Sykes. Mrs. Whisperina Willis led in prayer The program was followed by refreshments served by the hostess

The vengos vehicle velocity in feet ball team. Miss Boxie Berry will help to organize it. Hoochimo lierton, one of the club members, will Mins Glisserine Glbbs spent the week end with ar. and Mrs. Tie termouse Toler at Wide Spot.

Miss Virginia Vendor of separat Hill Creek is visiting her cousin. Miss Virgin Vendor, in this com-tarita Austin. Miss Violeen Lewis has returned rest of the crew were saved. to her home in Bay Level.

Carter Cartwright of Baltimore

Lack Cartwright. Miss Pandora Parker and Miss Wide Spot for the last several Miss Wandaleena Williams of after visiting relatives here.

The Fycetown Ramblers from Square Hill Creek will begin their square dances at the Catfish Corner Cafe next week end. Miss Pussy Parker will be the cashier.

Miss Penice Payne and Miss Dessie Belle Dowdy have recently returned from Sappy Sedge.

Miss Bozie Berry and Miss Tootsie Tucker motored to Calf Creek Sunday with Miss Galvonetta Garrison and Miss Tizziegig Tillett. Miss Consolena Carter is visiting Miss Wagonetta Walker in Frog

Fork. Miss Peruna Belle Perkins of Mrs. Minnorca Miller.

Prunella Parker at Wide Spot.

Creek to bring home Miss Bombay southward. Bratten and Miss Fendorola Fit-

Miss Jendolyn Jones of Wide ing intensely for three days with Carter.

held preaching services at Gar Creek in Bay Level.

NEW SHIP TO BE BUILT

A new ship, one that will never touch water, is scheduled to be built as a Lost Colony prop during the Spring, it was announced today by Al Bell, architect and general manager's assistant at The the pinnace used by the first colspecial built track.

FARMER ASSESSED $50

Jasper Jackson, farmer, of New-

The potato marketing agree-

one of a number pending prosecution in the two-state producing and, notwithstanding all the difarea. Two such cases are those a ficulties, reached the necessary gainst H. C. Potter, a producer-Wolfe, of Mount Olive.

In Atlanta, H. S. Patterson, southeastern compliance officer The doomed vessel was then ly-for the U. S. Department of Agri-ing broadside to the beach about culture's Production and Market-450 yards distant, and the sea ing Administration, said a number near future.

and rigging tanglel together.

WRECK OF THE OLIVE THURLOW, DEC., 1932.

The American barkentine Olive Thurlow was wrecked on December 5, 1902, in Lookout Bight, Wagonetta Walker in Frog Fork, blow inflicted upon his head by The Thurlow was of 660 tons burden, 26 years old, and heavily is visiting his mother, Mrs. Caddie laden with several hundred thousand feet of southern pine lumber, a portion of which was cirred on Salvadora Sawyer have been vis. deck, She was bound from Charited by Miss Jandolyn Jones of leston, South Carolina, to New York City, in command of Captain J. O. Hayes, and carried a crew of seven men all told. When as far Vinegar Hill has returned home on her way as Bodie Island she ran into a gale from the north, veering to the eastward, and at storm, attempted to put his vessel before the wind. In order that no and while he was trying to adjust the tiller ropes one of his feet was caught between the tiller and the quandrant and jammed with such and headed to the southward, which course she maintained until when she dropped her anchor in Miss Glisserine Gibbs and Miss 71/2 fathoms of water about 21/2 Daffylean Daniels are visiting Miss miles northeasterly from the Cape Lookout Life-Saving Station. The Gustovina Garrison and Bristo weather was then thick and rainy lene Brinn motored to Square Hill with a moderate gale from the

On the morning of the 4th the Captain, who had now been suffer-Spot is visiting Miss Cantaleva a broken leg, naturally desired to get ashore where he could receive Rev. Esau A. Byrd, pastor of surgical attention, and he there-Saintly Saul's Church, recently fore ordered a distress signal to be set in the rigging. "Two minutes later," as he says in his testi-Miss Barcelona Baum and Miss mony, he saw the answering pen-Penice Payne are visiting friends nant of the life-saving station, "and twenty minutes later the lifesavers were aboard." He was taken ashore, whence he was sent to Beaufort without delay, and in FOR LOST COLONY PROP closing his affidavit regarding the disaster he states that he "received all possible attention and was under many obligations to the keeper and crew."

Before leaving the vessel, Keep er Gaskill informed Captain Haves that a very severe gale was imminent from the southwest, that Waterside Theatre here. The present ship is a realistic replica of tion, and therefore he wished to the pinnace used by the first col-conists to reach Roanoke Island, that is, it is realistic when view-ed by a Lost Colony audience. But captully the chin is only the top actually the ship is only the top that she would not "head in and mast which was skillfully and au- could not be put in stays"-that thentically built and designed by is, that the movement suggested Bell to represent a plunace of the could not be made. The keeper, period and instead of floating in however, had not the slightest water it is rolled back stage on a doubt of its feasibility, and furthermore, it appears that the tug Other repairs are underway at Atlantic went alongside the Thur-Waterside Theatre and new addi- low and proposed to tow her to tions are to be constructed. A safe water and convey the master drying room will be built before to Beaufort, but the proposition the show opens for the season-a was declined because Captain necessity to dry faundered cos- Hayes would not agree to the tumes in a hurry. Repairs will all terms offered. When the keeper so be made to the choir loft and left the vessel she was riding to light towers in the theatre, Bell only 25 or 30 fathoms of chain, and, although this was subsequently increased to 50 fathoms on one anchor, the second mate in his testimony asserts the wreck IN POTATO VIOLATION to have been due to the fact that more scope was not given.

The Life-Saving station kept a ton Grove, N. C., was assessed a strict watch of the Thurlow from $50 fine in U. S. District Court in the time she anchored until her Raleigh March 13 on charges of fate was sealed. As soon as her shipping uninspected potatoes in crew were convinced that she was idation of provisions of Potato certain to strand they fired two darketing Agreement and Order Coston signals, which Surfman No. 81. Imposition of the fine fol- Yeomans, on the north patrol, lowed a plea of nol contendre by answered instantly. The life-say-lackson. cart quickly, and since they knew ment and order program regu-lates, by grade and size, the ship-ment of Irish potatoes from the ment of Irish potatoes from the a part of it in the driving cart. commercial producing areas of North Carolina and Virginia, and requires Federal-State inspection

The case against Jackson was one of a number pending prosecuposition opposite the wreck withdealer of Aurora, and J. Arthur in an hour from the burning of the distress signal on board.

All Men In The Rigging was making a clean breach over of other such cases against North her. All the men had taken to Carolina and Virginia potato pro- the lee mizzen rigging, and the ducers, dealers, and handlers are business of Keeper Gaskill was to now in the hands of the Justice cast a shot line as nearly as pos-Department and that criminal in sible into their hands. The wreck formations are expected to be fil- was gradually working to the ed against some of these in the westward, and therefore the sand anchor had to be moved some 50

af the top of the cabin on which It is much to be regretted that the safforn were gathered and car- asseper Gaskill was not allowed to

A Terrifying Trip The passage of these unfortunte men to the beach was a frightd spectacle, even to the surfhave people, to whom shipwreck a its most harrowing form is no ovelty. Lying flat upon the 10p. the cabin they thrust their cans though the windows of the exhight and desperately hung on. we were sorely injured, and the ther three assisted them as best

Then the Lyle gon was "At times," says the keeper, "all out have been 10 feet under the nred with a 6-ounce charge of sowder and a No. 7 line. The mier," when their grasp would emjectife left 15 or 20 feet short, timost fall, and even when they movever, and a second shot was one to the surface the break of Miss Tootsle Tucker and Miss coast of North Carolina, and one no more successful, but the third, the waves would nearly smother Penis Payne are visiting Msts man lost his life from a terrible with a No. 9 line and a 6-ounce them again. At last one lost his charge, landed fairly in the midst hold and seemed sure to drown, Miss Aldelanto Arnold of Square the mizzenmast, which gave way of the sailors in the mizzen but the life-savers went far out Hill Creek is visiting Miss Acos and fell to the deck soon after the shrouds. At that very instant the into the surf in spite of the wreckvessel entered the breakers. The most went down, the mizzen age and deadly undertow and savbreaking off about 20 feet above ed him - luckily themselves es the deck, crushing the skull of the caping great injury or death, steward, John Chalky, and serious- which was liable to follow a sinly injuring two other men. Chal- gle blow from the heavy timbers ky's body fell overboard, while thrust to and fro with terrific the others landed on the top of force. "The rescued man," says the house-men, mast, topmast, the keeper, "was more dead than alive when taken from the water." The vessel began to break up The other four still held on and within half an hour after she as soon as they were near enough struck, and disintegrated rapidly. the surfmen again went out into First the fore-top-mast fell, then the breakers and dragged the poor the forward house and deck load fellows to the beach. The second went overboard, then the bow and mate, who was badly hurt by the about 4:00 in the morning of De- the stern were torn off, the gen- falling mizzenmast, and a sailor cember 1, the master, deeming it eral ruin being finally completed who had flesh wounds and severe no longer advisable to breast the by the falling of all the masts bruises, could not stand, and had with a crash audible far along to be carried to the station in a shore. The top of the afterhouse, wagon. The three others were mistake should be made at the or cabin, was the only place of practically helpless, but though helm he himself took the wheel, refuge, and lying there the five bruised and sore were not woundsailors struggled for their lives, ed. None of the five could have with only a precarious handhold held out much longer, nor any above the ankle. The vessel was to the hands of the shipwrecked All were at once taken to the sta-on the skylight coamings. Mean- have saved themselves had they He had been in failing health for time the life-savers quickly fired lost their places on the piece of several years and critically ill for violence as to break his leg just another line which fell almost in wreckage which sustained them. a week. got around without further mishap men, who as quickly as they could tion, where they were stripped of by David M. Lewis, pastor with gain being treated in Norfolk Genpulled off the whip line and made their wet clothing, wrapped in Rev. A. J. Mackie of Belhaven as eral Hospital. fast the tail block to the stump blankets, furnished with proper sisting at Sladesville Methodist. Dewey Brinn of Norfolk was a ried them with it into the break- shift the Thurlow to a better an chorage, since it appears in the estimony that the schooner Waren Adams safely rode out the sme in a berth selected by him he thanks of the Service are due o the keeper and two assistants the Point Lookout light-house to several fishermen, for their countary and efficient aid in res ing the shipwrecked men. The dowing letter was received from he latter by the General Super-

Cape Lookour, North Carolina. December 7, 1902. We, the erew of the barkenne Olive Thurlow, which went a are December 5, at 4 a.m., and came a total wreck in Lookout ight, wish to thank Captain Gas Il and his crew, of Cape Lookou ife-saving station, for the timely esistance and care received at eir hands.

We would also state that if the essel had held together a little all would have been saved the breeches buoy, but the mizenmast broke, killing the steward and injuring two others, after heir line had been made fast to t, for which they are in no wise to blame.

C. Florian, Mate

A. Curtin, Second Mate F. Finch Seaman

J. Johnson, Seaman

G. Burgensen, Seaman The General Superintendent of the Live-Saving Service, Washington, D. C.

PROMINENT SCRANTON MAN PASSES AWAY SATURDAY

Joel Swindell, 79, died at Pungo District Hospital at Belhaven Sat- friends here. urday night, March 18, 10:25 p. m.

Funeral services were conducted Alligator Bay spent Sunday with 8:00 on the night of December 3, of the mizzenmast, but, while the stimulants, and placed in bed. church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 visitor here Sunday surfmen were engaged in sending After two days they were sent to o'clock. Interment followed in the Born at Lake Landing in Hyrt Satorday. ounty July 4, 1870, snn of the Charles Latham of beliaven ell. He was married to Annie day. Crawford of Edwards on Novemorn five daughters and one son. Davis relatives here Sunday.

e family has been residing in Sladesville since Janua y, 1927. Surviving are his wife, Annie awford Swindell; one son, Lee Bern, Mrs. Lonnie O'Neal of New of Roleigh, Mrs. H. D. Epting of little Mountani, S. C., and Mrs. Fortesone of Scranton: 17 candchildren.

SIDNEY PERSONALS Mrs. Mary Windley is still seram. She will undergo another family. operation sometime soon.

randchildren and five great-

Mesdames Eva E. Lockyer of Detroit and J. A. Febre of Ransom- Thompson's father, B. J. Midyette rille returned to Durham Monday and family during the past week. o be with their mother, Mrs. Mary Windley, a patient in Duke have returned from Maryland Hospital.

Elizabeth City where he is em of Princess Anne, a nephew of ployed and left for Durham Sat- Mrs. Neal. orday to spend the week end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lancaster of the week. Relhaven recently visited friends Mr. and Mrs. Royden Neal and Miss Maud Satterthwaite who has been spending a few days with relatives at home, left Satur- ter Donna of McConnellstown, Pa., day for Stonewall where she ex- are spending some time with relapects to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Brumsty of Belhaven recently visited in Belhaven with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Satterthwaite have returned to Greenville after spending the week end with relatives at home. Mrs. Harry Satterthwaite is a ington were business visitors here ate Dixon and Mary Fisher Swin- was a business visito, active and

H. J. Lrugg of V. ber 23, 1891. To this union was Park visited his Satterthwa or and

ENGELHARD PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spencer, Mr. aughters, Annie S. Heath of New and Mrs. John W. Spencer, and daughter Phylis of Norfolk, Mr. Holiand, Mrs. G. H. Wright, Jr., and Mrs. Gilbert Tillett of Wanchese spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw Bonner and daughter Sylvia of Greenville spent Sunday with relatives here. Patricia Neal returned to Greenville with them for a short visit.

Mrs. S. S. Marshall has returned from Norfolk where she spent the past few weeks with her ously ill in Duke Hospital, Dur- daughter, Mrs. E. C. Cahoon and where they were called on account J. A. Febre has returned from of the death of John McGrath, Jr.,

The Rev. and Mrs. Horace Thompson of Colmbia visited Mrs. Mrs. S. S. Neal and son Royden

B. J. Midvette and son James were Washington visitors during

Mr. E. Marshall visited in Rocky Mount and Greenville on Monday Mrs. Donald Hunter and daughtives here.

Mrs. S. S. Neal spent Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carter and Bill Burrus visited Mr. and Mrs. UJim Watson at Fairfield one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Marshall announce the birth of a son, born March 24th at the Tayloe Hospital in Washington.

C. O. Jones and son of Wash- ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS

Here's the car that gives you highest quality at lowest cost

America's Best Seller . . . America's Best Buy!

All these exclusive features make Chevrolet

FIRST...and Finest...at Lowest Cost!

NEW STYLE-STAR BODIES BY FISHER . NEW TWO-TONE FISHER INTERIORS . CENTER-POINT STEERING . CURVED WINDSHIELD with PANORAMIC VISIBILITY . LONGEST, HEAVIEST LOW-PRICED CAR . CERTI-SAFE HYDRAULIC BRAKES . EXTRA-ECONOMICAL TO OWN-OPERATE-MAINTAIN

Here, for the first time in low-cost motoring, is a truly automatic drive. Chevrolet's exclusive Powerglide Automatic Transmission, teamed with a new 105-h.p. Valvein-Head Engine, that is the most powerful in its field, brings you an entirely new kind of smooth-flowing movement at all speeds, without clutch pedal, "clutch pushing" or gearshifting. All this with traditional Chevrolet economy in over-all driving!

> *Combination of Powerglide Transmission and 105-h.p. Engine optional on De Luxe models at extra cost.

Think of all the things you want in your new motor car . . . and of how completely the new Chevrolet fulfills these desires at lowest cost . . . and we believe you will agree it's your

All comparisons will convince you that it offers the finest motor car qualities at lowest prices . . . from the smoothflowing beauty of its Body by Fisher to the smooth-floating comfort of its Knee-Action Ride . . . and from the thrilling performance of its thrifty Valve-in-Head Engine to the extraordinary ease of control that comes with your choice of the finest in automatic or standard drives.

Yes, here's the car that gives you your best dollar's worth in quality . . . feature after feature and advantage after advantage of higher-priced cars at the lowest prices and with surprisingly low cost of operation and upkeep . . . so come in and place your order-todayl

RAD JONES CHEVROLET CO.

Belhaven, N. C.