HYDE'S ASC OFFICE MGR.

Joe C. Williams, Jr., Hyde County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office manager, this week made the following statement concerning the coming election of ASC committeemen:

It's Voting Time Again Very soon you and your neighbors will be electing the ASC-farmer-committeemen who in 1955 will be responsible for the local administration of such national farm programs as the Agricultural Conservation program, price supports, acreage allotments, marketing quotas, storage facility loans and oth-

It is these men who will see to it that such national programs are properly adapted to conditions in Hyde County and to your farm, and it is the background and experience of these same men that will be mingled with that of the 135 thousand ASC farmer-committeeformation of any new program that developments in the coming year may require. This double-barrelled function of your farmer orous through the years and has been largely responsible for the truly democratic development and operation of your national farm programs.

You participate by helping to elect your committeemen, by keeping them informed of the problems facing you and your community, by giving them your full support and cooperation in their job of program formulation and administration.
