A USEFUL ELEPHANT.

Gentry Brothers' Famous Shows United, which are soon to exhibit in this city, have a troupe of performing Elephants, which are both useful as well as ornamental. One of the Elephants, Pinto by name, plays a hand organ in the Elephant Band, which is one of the ensemble numbers of the animal Actors performance. As the Pachyderm is used to turn a crank, his ability in that direction is utilized after the performance by turning the feed cutter, which chops up the hay for the one hundred or more of his pony associates. At the conclusion of the performance the other Elephants go to a corner of the tent for rest, while Pinto walks outside to the cutting box and without any suggestions from any one starts to complete his daily task.

The Gentry Show will exhibit in this city on Thursday, September 11th, at 2:30 and 8 p. m. in Cameron Field.

HIS UNKIND "FLING."

From The Brooklyn 7/11.

"I saw him holding your hand," said her small brother, whereat all the other members of the family looked.

"Yes," she replied, calmly; "he has been studding palmistry."

"Oh!" said the small brother.

"He was reading the story of my life," she persisted defiantly.

For a moment it looked as if she had subdued the small brother. Then he remarked: "You must be pretty old, Sis."

"What do you mean?" she demanded.

"It was a long story."

"Don't be absurd, Tommy."

"And a continued story."

You ought to keep a little good whiskey in the house. For accidents, fainting spells, exhaustion, and other emergency uses, it relieves and revives. But you must have good whiskey, pure whiskey, for poor whiskey, adulterated whiskey is injurious. Hayner Whiskey is just what you need for it goes direct from their distillery to you, with all its original strength, richness and flavor, carries a United States Registered Distiller's Guarantee of Purity and Age and saves you the enormous profits of the dealers. Read the offer of The Hayner Distilling Company elsewhere in this paper. They are a reputable house, have a paid up capital of half a million dollars, been in business over 25 years and will do exactly as they say. adv.
