Years ago the Queen plighted her troth with the Count, but was compelled to marry Alfonso's father as state reasons.
The King is wild, and has ordered his mother to go abroad with her husband. The Queen indignantly refused.

WAKE SCHOOLS

New School House—Good Attendance at Opening

A new school house is to be built in Wake county. Messrs. E. L. Womble, and G. A. Boling passed through the city this morning from Morrisville on their way to Paris Grove, where a building will be erected at once to accommodate over one hundred pupils. There are over one hundred children in this vicinity who are in need of an education and no better selection could have been made than this point. The house will cost $350.
This school will be located near the home of Capt. W. G. Allen, and will be well equipped with all modern improvements of public schools.

MUST LEAVE TOWN.

The white man, Con. Perry, who was sent to the roads last Saturday for being drunk and disorderly, was afterwards allowed to go free by the Mayor on conditions he would leave town. This morning his honor was confronted by this same white man Perry, who was arrested again Saturday night for the same charge. At the trial this morning he pleaded most pitifully to His Honor and promised to leave and not to return again in twelve months and the Mayor allowed him to go once again, but says if he is caught in Raleigh after five o'clock this afternoon he will be sent to the roads on both charges. He has served several terms on the roads for disorderly conduct and is a frequent visitor before the Mayor.
W. H. Jones was fined $3.25 for assault and battery, which he paid.

REAPING THE HARVEST.

The impressive title, Reaping the Harvest given to Tom Fitch's newest drama which J. H. LaPearl presents at the Academy next Wednesday evening, surely sets one thinking. In this most beautiful and masterly constructed play a good and bad harvest is reaped. The one contrasted with the other makes one for a strong moral and has established Reaping the Harvest in the hearts of all who appreciate a clean, wholesome, educational stage story as the peer of them all.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hodge died at the residence of his parents, 10 miles south of Raleigh last Saturday. The funeral services were held from the residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and the burial took place at the family burial grounds.

By Telegraph to The Times.
SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Ex-Senator D. B. Hill arrived here at ten o'clock this morning and the Democratic State convention has fairly begun.
Parker still refused to run for Governor and Coler's chances seem to be waning.
Suspicion is growing that Senator Hill may be working his cards to have the nomination offered to him. In the event any man outside of New York city is nominated for Governor then Guggenheimer will be named for Lieutenant-Governor.

ASSOCIATION ADJOURNS

The Primitive Baptist Association, which closed its meeting last evening at Metropolitan Hall, proved to be the most successful in the history of the church. Over fifteen hundred people were in attendance in all. Yesterday the hall was packed to overflowing and many were turned away. A great crowd was present from the country and it was impossible to accommodate the crowd, for their stock in the livery stables.
The first sermon yesterday morning was preached by Elder P. D. Gold, of Wilson, and it was pronounced by many to be one of the ablest discourses ever delivered in Raleigh. He held the large crowd spell-bound and showed to the large crowd present that he was capable of interesting them. After Mr. Gold's sermon was concluded, he was followed by Elder J. T. Rowe, of Baltimore, who preached a strong sermon, in which he outlined the doctrine of the church. He said he had never preached in a town the size of Raleigh in which he was more cordially received and he hoped to visit this section again.
The closing sermon last evening was delivered by Elder George Robinson, of Martin county, one of the ablest preachers in the denomination. He spoke for over an hour, and the large crowd present were greatly influenced by his words. He is a conscientious preacher and his remarks have great weight upon the congregation.
This sermon closed the meeting of the Primitive Baptist Association of Little River in Raleigh, and the first association ever held in Raleigh. Most of those who attended left this morning, and all spoke of the noble hospitality in which they were entertained by the Raleigh citizens.
The regular custom of the church is to hold its associations at every church in the district and being sixteen churches in the association they will not meet in Raleigh again in seventeen years.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN THE CHURCHES

Immense Congregations Hear Dr. Daniel's Parting Words—Addition to Tabernacle Assured at Rally Day—Primitive Baptists Adjourn

At the First Baptist church yesterday Rev. A. C. Cree, of Gaffney, S. C., occupied the pulpit both at the morning service and the evening service. At the morning service he took as his text John 10th chapter and 10th verse, and the words were as follows: "I am come that they might have life more abundantly." He brought out his principal thought, the freedom Christians have over sinners in going forth in the duties of life, and from this he spoke of the physical, intellectual and spiritual life, ably discussing each one. At the evening service his text was John, 50th chapter and 33rd verse, the words were as follows: "Search the Scriptures for in them ye think ye have eternal life." From this text he discussed mainly thoughts we have for the Bible and truths therein, both sermons morning and evening were interesting and listened to by large congregations. of the Sunday school room, for the Baraca class. This class numbers 105 young men and is taught by Mr. R. N. Simms. Of the $735 raised the Baraca class gave $450. At the Sunday school yesterday the attendance was 57, with 118 new scholars and 4 on the cradle roll, those who will come when they are old enough. At the regular church hour a talk was made by Mr. Simms on "How can the Pastor and Church Members Help the Sunday School?" and by the pastor, Rev. W. D. Hubbard, on "How can the Sunday School Help the Church." The superintendent, Mr. N. B. Broughton, then spoke and the collection was taken for building this room.

TRUSTS CANNOT LIVE THERE.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The new amalgamation interests which was officially announced Saturday afternoon, has been received with mixed feelings. Unbounded satisfaction is expressed at the defeat of the American attempt to capture the British market and the proof that the so-called trust system cannot flourish in a free trade country like England as it can in a protectionist country like the United States, but at the same time there is considerable lamentation at the fact that the consumer will have to pay enhanced prices. The Daily Chronicle in an editorial article, points out that the new monopoly will almost inevitably send prices up. As the Imperial Company has no rival to fear in the British market it will be able to dictate fresh terms; dealers, therefore, says the paper, regard the new amalgamation with considerable alarm.

MORGAN SAVES DAY

Put Up 20,000,000 on Wall Street Market This Morning

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—J. Pierpont Morgan and Company prevented a crash on Wall Street today by putting $20,000,000 into the market, including $5,000,000, the anticipated dividend on United Steel shares. The threatened panic was due to a slump in Louisville and Nashville stock, which lost over seven points.
COTTON LETTER.
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The market this morning showed little animation in the early dealings. Prices advanced 2 to 6 points on covering of the nearer positions. Cables were of no special importance and the mere fact that Liverpool is not prepared to undertake a campaign on her own account despite her repeated efforts to antagonize bull sentiment on the ground of very poor trade conditions leaves the local bull element in full control. More or less rain was reported early in the day which was interpreted as against the crop. Press despatches reported as much as 15 inches of rain in Southwest Texas and as this section produces a fair yield the fact naturally helped the longs. Moreover, there is a feeling that the weekly bureau report tomorrow may be in the same line, as there heretofore and there is also a belief that the monthly report on Friday next will also confirm the government's Sept. 27th report. Slight changes occurred in the market up to noon. The forecast for Texas and Northern and Eastern States was for colder weather tonight and tomorrow with showers. Port receipts, 47,000 against 53,000 last year.

THE AFTERMATH

Craig-Pritchard Joint Discussion Here Saturday Night

The principal topic of conversation yesterday was the joint debate between Senator Pritchard and Hon. Locke Craig Saturday night. In manner and method of speaking they are totally different, hence comparisons between the speeches varied greatly. Mr. Craig has fiery burning oratory, a fine flow of language and an aptness at telling anecdotes which moves an audience. He arouses enthusiasm.
Senator Pritchard is argumentative and impresses one as a master of the economic subjects which he strives to present. While he had no jokes and showed little effort at humor, yet he held close attention for an hour and a half. More people were turned away from the Hall of Representatives than could get in. Hundreds stood up through the entire three hours' debate. As to who gained the advantage in the debate there was considerable difference of opinion. Today Senator Pritchard and Mr. Craig speak at Pittsboro and tomorrow at Oxford.
Mr. Craig refused to make appointments at Durham or Salisbury, since they are the home counties of General J. S. Carr and Hon. Lee S. Overman, both candidates for the Senate. In making their appointments the Senator Pritchard and Mr. Craig did not consult the county chairmen of their parties.
