RALEIGH BANKERS AT PLAY

Fuquay Springs Was the Scene of a Rare Gathering—Special Train Also Carried Guests to Lillington.

"If a more enjoyable time was ever known it has not been put into words." Such were the comments when the big barbecue party returned from an outing down the Raleigh & Southport Railroad last night.

There was not a dull moment while the bankers were at play. All had been arranged with splendid thought and care. It was at Fuquay Springs that a treat fit for the gods was spread.

If there is such a thing as a gastronomic chief surely his identity is done up in the anatomy of Barney Jones. He it was who prepared and served so rich and great a feast.

When the table of goodies had been relieved of its load, the announcement was made that the party would be privileged to make a run down to Lillington in order that the rest-seekers could look upon the Cape Fear river and some of the sights in Harnett county.

POSSE FOLLOWS BRUTE NEGRO

Charlotte Men Aroused Over the Crime Against Woman—Assailant Caught in Pineville and Confessed Crime.

(Special to The Evening Times.) Charlotte, N. C., July 27.—Ed Hall, a young negro, attempted criminal assault upon Mrs. Mack Auten, wife of a well-to-do farmer, at her home near the city, yesterday morning, but was foiled in his purpose.

The news spread quickly in all directions for several miles around, and in an hour numerous armed parties were scouring the woods. Bloodhounds were put on the trail.

Officers at Pineville were notified by telephone and were furnished with a description of the negro. When Hall, trail-stained and weary, reached that town in his mad flight for liberty, two constables arrested him. He denied his identity then, but when he was brought to this city and confronted with men who knew him, he confessed.

PLANS OF CONSPIRACY REVEALED.

Sevastopol, July 27.—The court-martial of the mutineers among the crew of the George Plebedonozets, which at first joined the Potemkin in the recent Black Sea revolt, has brought to light the fact that a widespread conspiracy for revolt existed among the sailors of the Black Sea fleet, and the artillery in the fortress at Sevastopol.

The plot included the seizing of all vessels in the fleet and the fortress at Sevastopol. It was then planned to send an ultimatum to the Czar demanding that he should grant to Russia a satisfactory constitution. In case he refused the mutineers intended to use the fleet to bombard every city and town on the Black Sea which refused to join in the revolt.

MRS. MAYER FOUND TIME FOR LAW SUITS.

New York, July 27.—After waiting 25 years, until she had succeeded in helping her husband to conquer poverty and brought a family of six children through a period of infancy, Mrs. Sophie Mayer, of 105 Attorney street, is at last going to realize the ambition of her girlhood and become a lawyer.

Mrs. Mayer is 43 years old, but is as light-hearted and aspiring as a girl of 20. She is the wife of Adolph H. Mayer, an East Side attorney. For two years she has attended the department of law of New York University, graduating in June.

New York, July 27.—August Belmont, the banker, has been made defendant in the Supreme Court in a suit brought by John H. Freit, a jockey, to recover one hundred thousand dollars damages. The jockey asserts that by reason of a notice, which he says Belmont caused to be published about him, his reputation and good name have been damaged to the amount of ninety thousand dollars, the remaining ten thousand is based on the alleged refusal of another horseman to employ him because of the alleged complaint.

PUSHING WORK ON ROAD.

Court at Marion—A Big Docket—New CHAIN GANG.

Marion, N. C., July 27.—McDowell county Superior Court is in session this week with Judge M. H. Justice presiding, and Solicitor Spainhour prosecuting. There is a pretty full docket consisting of petty cases, with the exception of two or three; one for murder in which Ben Carr is charged with the killing of John Higgins, another negro boy last spring, and State vs. H. P. Lynch, from Rowan county, for forgery. Lynch forged the name of the Cleveland Manufacturing Company to a check and had it cashed here.

The chain-gang, which the commissioners established at their July meeting, will start off with a pretty good crowd, judging from the present docket.

Congressman J. H. Gudger was on the ground this week looking after his "fences" and shaking hands with his friends. The South & Western Railroad people are still pushing the work on their road. They recently received three or four car-loads of supplies for construction work with two cars of powder and dynamite. Large squads of hands pass here daily going out to the works.

PET ELEPHANT SICK.

New York, July 27.—Jennie, the pet elephant of the Thompson & Dundy herd, which was sent to Luna Park from the Hippodrome at the close of the city season, is ill from a chill contracted at the abrupt termination of the hot spell last week.

Peter Barlow, the trainer, says he is afraid Jennie cannot live. The show managers declare that the rest of the herd seems well aware that the pet of the herd is very sick, and have been acting nervously at all the performances recently.

EDITOR WILLIAMS INDICTED.

Richmond, Va., July 27.—The grand jury yesterday brought in indictments against five men, including Alfred B. Williams, editor of an afternoon paper, for alleged violation of election laws in the recent Democratic primary here. The indictment alleges Mr. Williams agreed to pay $25 to one of the others for influencing votes in behalf of a candidate for Commonwealth attorney. All except one, who is out of town, gave $500 bond each. The cases will be tried in September.
